

BUSINESS BRIEFS

Promote Jacobs To Controller At Wolverine Tube

John W. Jacobs, 7230 Parkhurst drive, Birmingham, who was formerly budget manager for the Wolverine Tube division of Calumet & Hecla, Inc., has been promoted, effective June 1, 1957, to assistant controller of this division reporting to Vernard D. Hanna, controller.

Among other accounting affiliations, Jacobs is a member of the Detroit chapter of National Association of Cost Accountants.

Jacobs attended Georgia Tech and later the University of Georgia where he received the BSC degree in accounting.

Attends Company Training School

Bruce M. Maynard, 1675 Shipman, Birmingham, of the Pomeroy agency of the New England Mutual Life Insurance company is attending an intensive advanced training school at the company's home office in Boston.

Maynard, who lives at 1675 Shipman boulevard, Birmingham, was graduated from Michigan State university in 1950. He is a member of the Birmingham Rotary club and the Detroit Life Underwriters association.

ONE OF THE LAST things that A. Shanley Rosso, assistant to the manager of the Detroit Bank and Trust company, did before leaving the bank to become assistant cashier of First National in Lapeer, was to accept a cash deposit from his brother, Harvey Rosso, president of Birmingham Lumber and Supply.

Bloomfield Drugs Open

CONGENIAL DICK HAYES, pharmacist-owner of Bloomfield Drugs at 6415 Telegraph road, is happy in his new store, open now for approximately two months. The University of Kansas graduate and his wife, Ruth, offer a complete line of drug supplies and prescriptions to the blossoming Telegraph and Maple area.

'Oldest' Employee Leaves

He has the distinction of being the only employee to be with the Birmingham bank since its opening June 15, 1933 to its merger with the Detroit Bank and Trust company September 1, 1956.

RETIRING temporarily from church music, he has resigned his post as organist for the Congregational church.

For over 24 years, he has worked in the same building and served in various departments for three different banks, the First National, Birmingham National and Detroit Bank and Trust.

ROSSO, who was given a going away party at the Fox and Hounds June 10 by his former Birmingham National employees, entered the army as a private during World War II and was discharged as a captain.
