

Bloomfield Village

Reunion with brothers and sisters and friends has started the summer fun at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Underhill of North Cranbrook. Gigi, Barbara and Tony have all arrived home from their respective schools and the pool is humming with teeners. Tony brought a guest for a few days and is now enjoying a brief sojourn in Chicago.

Gigi will be a sophomore at Michigan State university next fall. Barbara is a senior at North-western and Tony will enter his second year at Babson institute in Waltham Hills, Mass. Tony served four years in the U. S. Navy and is now finishing his schooling.

Mr. and Mrs. Underhill entertained Sunday for Mr. and Mrs. Ray Holman who are residing on East Maple temporarily, having moved here from Toledo in the fall.

The cocktail party for 15 couples was to introduce them to members of Orchard Lake Country club.

Things are settling back to normal at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Adams of Morning View following the wedding of their daughter, Marian Elizabeth.

House guests who came for the wedding and stayed a few days afterward were Mrs. Adams' sister and husband, Dr. and Mrs. Eugene L. Porter of Galveston, Tex., and Dr. John Herbert Nichols of Oberlin, Ohio.

The bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Edward T. Callahan are returning this weekend from their northern Michigan honeymoon and will leave to take up their residence in New York where he is on the legal staff of Ramco Oil Co., and she is secretary to the managing editor of New Yorker magazine.

Ann Abbott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Abbott of Bradway boulevard, entertained seven guests last week at lunch in honor of Frances VonNauer of Hamilton road who left Friday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert VonNauer, for a month's vacation in Europe.

Following lunch she took the group to Orchard Lake Country club where they spent the afternoon swimming.

Her guests were Barbara Beler, Chris Walters, Jane Slater, Linda Rostick and Pauline Craig.

The annual picnic of the Bloomfield Village Volunteer Firemen's organization was held Saturday evening in the adjoining back yards of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Bauer of Broadway boulevard and Mr. and Mrs. Garrett H. Mow of Overhill.

This lavishly catered affair is the one time each year when wives of the volunteer fireman accompany their husbands to an organization event.

Dinner was preceded by a cocktail hour and the evening was spent in dancing on a floor installed in the yard. A large tent was erected in case of inclement weather for the 65 guests to carry on in any event.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin H. Anbal of N. Cranbrook road visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Star's Ritchie of Kenilworth, Ill., a week ago and brought their granddaughter, Ann Ritchie, home with them for a few days.

Saturday they drove her back to her home in Kenilworth, just outside of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Appleford and son John, a sophomore at Dartmouth, recently attended the graduation of their son Robert W. Appleford from Williams college, Williamstown, Mass.

Robert received his A.B. degree and will enter the University of Michigan law school next year. Before their return home, the family enjoyed a few days at Cape Cod.

Repeat Vows in Lutheran Church

MRS. EUGENE P. HAWTHORNE, JR.

Kathleen Joan Hendrickson and Eugene P. Hawthorne, Jr. were united in marriage Saturday afternoon by the Rev. Theo. Waggner, in the presence of 200 guests. Scene of the ceremony was Redeemer Lutheran church in Detroit.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. William A. Hendrickson of Eastroy, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Eugene P. Hawthorne, Sr., of Detroit.

FOR HER wedding day, Kathleen chose a white nylon organza gown featuring a sabbina neckline, short sleeves with a fitted bodice and very full skirt. Headpiece of pearls and taffeta secured her elbow length veil. She carried a bouquet of white roses.

Mrs. M. H. Webster of East Lansing wore a gown of white embroidered nylon organza over white taffeta for her duties as matron of honor. She wore a lace picture hat and carried an arrangement of roses and white mums.

Bridesmaids were Gaele Greig of Franklin, Ann Hawthorne of Detroit and Kay Hopkins of Freeport, Ill. They wore gowns identical to the matron of honors.

JOSEPH HAZELRY of Detroit was best man. Guests were seated by Robert Richenbach, Roger Hommer and Ted Dostenhoff of Detroit, and Robert Hendrickson of Birmingham.

Mrs. Hendrickson attended her daughter's wedding in a champagne lace sheath dress featuring a chiffon bustle in back of same color. Her floral hat was in matching hues and she wore pink roses. The mother of the groom selected a blue lace dress with matching hat and shoes and she wore pink roses.

After a garden reception at the bride's parents, the couple left for Northern Michigan for their honeymoon. Upon returning, they will reside in Royal Oak.
