Kirk in the Hills Is Scene of Wedding

Kirk in the Hills was the scene of the Saturday evening marriage of Karin Anne Martin and Glenn McKenzie Brown.

The Rev. Harold C. DeWitt performed the double-ring ceremony for the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Brooks Martin of Putnam, Birmingham, and the son of Mrs. Archibald Brown of Farmington, and the late Mr. Brown.

KARIN carried a cascade of lilies and stephanotis with her embroidered organza gown, designed with short sleeves, sweetheart neckline and very full skirt forming four scalloped tiers in back sweeping the floor. An embroidered headpiece with scalloped edging secured her shoulder-length veil.

Mrs. William Tuck of Detroit, was Karin's matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Frederick Johnston, sister of the bride, and Velma Yost.

Attendants were gowned alike in white nylon organza ballerina-length gowns with blue inset at neckline and they carried a cascade of white carnations and delphiniums.

KENNETH Schoonlin of Detroit stood as best man. Frederick Johnston of Pontiac, Robert Watvet of Canada, William Tuck of Detroit, and Richard Cain of Berkeley ushered.

The bride's mother wore a grey silk over pink taffeta with pink accessories. Mrs. Brown chose an old rose lace over taffeta with blue

Wedding Solemnized Friday

Nancy Elizabeth Atchley and James Lee Emmons exchanged wedding vows and rings Friday evening in St. James Episcopal Church. Rev. W. E. Snoxell performed the 7 o'clock rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Atchley of Pleasant, Birmingham. Mr. and Mrs. James T. Emmons of Missouri are parents of the groom.

NANCY was gowned in a white Italian silk taffeta featuring an empire bodice of alencon lace studded in pearls, with a sabrina neckline and short shirred sleeves. A crown of pearls secured her fingertip veil of silk illusion. She carried a bouquet of orchids and stephanotis.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William Lagemann of Kansas City and Dorothy Barden of St. Louis, Miss., was bridesmaid. They wore white length dresses of lavender dotted white nylon over white taffeta with wide crushed shoulder straps and lavender cummerbunds and small flat hats of lavender nylon straw having crowns piped with lavender satin. Small pink rosebuds were draped from one side of the brims matching the roses in the attendant's colonial bouquets of pink roses, surrounded by blue-purple delphinium edged with a lavender ruffle.

PAMELA Taylor of Royal Oak, served as flower girl. She was dressed in a floor-length lavender swiss organza over lavender taffeta with full skirt, puffed sleeves, white embroidered collar and wide sash tied in bow. Her hat and miniature bouquet were identical to the other attendants.

Guests were ushered by Charles Thomas and Robert Klusendorf of Detroit. William Beck of Detroit was best man.

For her daughter's wedding day, Mrs. Atchley selected a dress of pink chiffon with a ruffled skirt of Val lace, accented by matching hat and shoes. Mrs. Emmons chose a dusty rose lace over taffeta with a white feathered hat. Both mothers wore orchids.

After greeting guests at an evening reception at the Oakland Hills country club, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon to Spring Mills, Ind. Upon returning, they will make their home in Royal Oak.
