Honeymooning in Mexico City

After honeymooning in Mexico City and Acapulco, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Eugene Carrick, Jr., will reside in Birmingham for the summer. In the fall they will move to Boulder, Colo., where the groom will complete his studies at Colorado University. The couple pledged their marriage vows at 2 p.m., June 15, in the Little chapel of First Presbyterian church, Albuquerque, New Mexico. The bride is the former Georgiana June Rundle, daughter of Mrs. Ruby Rundle, of Albuquerque. Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Carrick, Sr., 1001 Fairfax road, Birmingham, are parents of the groom.

MR. & MRS. PAUL E. CARRICK

GEORGIANA chose a cocktail length, short-length, short-sleeved gown of ivory Italian lace over satin. With it she wore an ivory net picture hat with scattered seed pearls. She carried a white prayer book with a white orchid. Matron of honor was Mrs. Charles W. Carrick. She wore pink crystaletti with matching tiara and carried pink carnations. Charles W. Carrick was best man. A niece and nephew of the groom, Claudia and David Carrick, were flower girl and ring bearer.

MRS. RUNDLE wore a black and white dress with a corsage of pink rose buds. The mother of the groom chose a blue dress and also wore pink rose buds. A wedding reception was held at the Desert Sands immediately following the ceremony for members of the immediate families. Local guests were Mr. and Mrs. Paul E. Carrick, of Birmingham; Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. Carrick and Claudia and David of Bloomfield Hills; and Mrs. Robert E. Burge and Stella, of Mansfield, Ohio.

WAYLITE®

Dacron-and-Wool Tropical

WAYLITE is a fine tropical! The fabric is woven of finer yarns which makes this exclusive blend of Dacron and wool far finer and far lighter in weight. Thus, the suit is cooler, resists wrinkles and holds its crease better than other Dacron and wool blends.

Also, the superb tailoring of H. Freeman & Son keeps the suit in shape even through days of continuous wear. And finally, special lightweight linings and pure silk thread help lessen the weight and heighten the luxury!
