Newly Weds Honeymoon in Florida

Five attendants in lilac and yellow organza preceded Shirley Ann Schoenfeld down the aisle of Our Lady Queen of Martyrs Church for her marriage Saturday morning to Robert Edward Holcomb. The Rev. L. Totte solemnized the ceremony.

The bride, daughter of Mrs. J. B. Schoenfeld of Birmingham boulevard, Birmingham, and the late Dr. Schoenfeld, wore a wedding gown of nylon organza with a soft petal shaped neckline. Four tiers fell into a sweeping chapel train featuring a scalloped and embroidered full skirt.

THE SILK tulle veil was held in place by her crown of tiny seed pearls. Her flowers were of white roses, stock, stephanotis and accented with mums.

Matron of honor was Mrs. William McKenzie, sister of the groom. She wore a lilac waist length gown fashioned of organza with a full skirt and tiny cap sleeves complemented the scoop neckline. Her headpiece was lilac color straw accented with flowers and pearls. She carried mums and green ivy with yellow ribbon.

BRIDESMAIDS were Ethel Roehm, Nancy Beier, Wendy Mowbray, and Marilyn Holcomb, sister of the groom. They wore yellow waist length gowns identical to the matron of honor's.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Holcomb of Winkleson, Birmingham, asked James S. Holcomb, brother of the groom, to be best man. Ushers were Michael Conroy, Robert Larson, James Birney, and Ted Murray.

Devon Gables was the scene of the wedding breakfast. Mrs. Schoenfeld chose a dress of blue satin covered with navy lace. The mother of the groom chose an ensemble of pink accented with a large organza sash.

After a honeymoon trip to Miami Beach, Fla., Shirley and Robert will make their home in Royal Oak.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Murray of Lake Forest, Ill. and Mrs. J. B. Schoenfeld, Jr., of Norman, Okla., and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bryce of Cleveland, Ohio.

Cranbrook Scene Of Wedding

Christ Church Cranbrook was the scene Saturday afternoon of the wedding of Mary Grindley and John Andrus Shepard. The Rev. Robert L. DeWitt performed the four o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the young couple are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Frederick Grindley of Sodon Lake drive, Bloomfield Hills and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas R. Shepard of East Orange, N. J.

MARY chose a gown fashioned of white organza and alencon lace featuring a bateau neckline of lace with a fitted bodice and full skirt with lace appliques. Complementing the gown was a white prayer book covered by a white archid and spray of lilies of the valley. A shell cap of heirloom lace secured her fingertip veil.

As matron of honor for her sister, Mrs. Charles B. Akerson of Wellesley, Mass., wore a ballerina length gown of aqua nylon with cummerbund of deeper tone with a scoop neckline. She carried a bouquet of yellow roses and ivy.

BRIDESMAIDS were Jane Hales, Mrs. Richard Spencer, Mrs. Clyde Thompson, Jr., and Mrs. William Saunders. Dresses were identical to the maid of honor's.

Flower girls were Susan Jean and Mary Alice Akerson. They wore white organza over polished yellow cotton and carried baskets of daisies.

Thomas R. Shepard, Jr. was best man for his brother's wedding. Ushers were Donald Miller, John Newman, David Kunz, Norman Carey, Charles Akerson and Robert B. Grindley, brother of the bride.

Mrs. Grindley attended her daughter's wedding in a heavenly blue lace dress with jacket and a gardenia pinned to her purse. The mother of the groom chose a blue crepe dress with matching accessories and an archid.

For traveling, the bride changed to a lavender and white cotton dress with white accessories. They are motoring thru the New England states.

Trust services are for lots of people

... for people like this happy twosome, for example, who get the most from their moderate means. He's worked hard for what they have, and in many ways so has she, but they take the time to enjoy it. They have ever since his attorney advised him to let National Bank's Trust Department handle his investment portfolio. It was sound advice. It's freed him to devote his full energies to his job and his family. And his job and family are better off because of it. So is his account. Our Investment Agency Service has returned him considerable income over the years. He has also created a trust in his will which will provide similar investment management for his survivors, who may be less experienced in making investments.

We'll be glad to talk to you about the many advantages of a trust relationship with National Bank of Detroit.
