

Married Saturday In Holy Name

Karin Kathryn Oldberg and Peter B. Shaw were united in marriage Saturday noon by Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene E. Paddock, in the presence of 250 guests. Some of the ceremony was Holy Name Church.

Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Oldberg of Puritan, Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. John F. Shaw of Ensley, Conn.

MRS. PETER B. SHAW

KAREN'S wedding gown of Italian taffeta was designed with long sleeves, a portrait neckline accented by lace and a full skirt sweeping into a full train.

A rose pointe lace cap held in place her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a bouquet of stephanotis and white roses.

White headbands with daisies complemented the French blue cotton dresses worn by the bride's attendants. Their gowns featured matching cummerbund with scoop neckline and full skirt. Yellow roses and daisies were arranged for their bouquets.

MATRON OF HONOR was Mrs. Roy Christianson of Ann Arbor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. William K. Downey, sister of the bride, Frederick Bahr, and Mrs. John Balty, Betsy Sherrer.

James Oles was best man. Ushers were Howard Gaberson, Sidney T. Oldberg, brother of the bride, William K. Downey, and George Manning of Ann Arbor.

The bride's mother wore a pale pink organza sheath with white lace and small matching hat. Mrs. Shaw chose a blue silk chiffon dress and pink hat. Their corsages were roses.

After a brunch reception at the Orchard Lake country club, the couple left for a honeymoon in Bermuda. The bride wore a navy blue silk sheath with navy and beige accessories.

Vows Spoken Friday Evening

Lorraine Ceelle LeDuc and Frederick Bredbeck Bevis pledged their nuptial vows Friday at the Peoples Church in Lansing.

The Rev. G. Brandt Teft solemnized the double-ring rites at a candlelight ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Don M. LeDuc of East Lansing. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Bevis of Westwood, Birmingham.

MRS. FREDERICK B. BEVIS

THE BRIDE chose a gown fashioned of French lace and tulle over satin featuring a lace bodice with scalloped sabrina neckline edged with sequins. A billowing skirt of tiered tulle overlaid with deep peplum falling at back to a brush train. French silk illusion fell from her half hat of lace with crystal drops. Trailing stephanotis was carried on a white bobble.

Mrs. John R. Barnes of Muskegon, was her sister's maid of honor. She chose a ballerina length gown of dlor blue dupioni silk with a square neckline and short cap sleeves. She carried a basket of pastel and white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Fred Dawe, Jr., sister of the bride, of Marianna, Fla., Valerie Rade, cousin of the bride of Albion, Catherine Dale of Lansing and Pamela Dexter, sorority sister of the bride, of Glen Ellyn, Ill. They were dressed identical to the matron of honor's gown.

GREGORY E. BEVIS, brother of the groom, was best man. Guests were seated by John Barnes of Muskegon, Robert Gasser, James Conlin and Howard Bevis, uncle of the groom, of Lombard, Ill. Mrs. DeLac attended her daughter's wedding in a navy chiffon sheath with French lace with white accessories. The mother of the groom accented her beige lace dress with brown satin accessories.

Out of town guests greeted at a reception in the church parlor were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis M. LaDuke of Jackson, Mrs. Charles Haefner of Denver, Colo., Sharon and Bruce Elper of Denver, Colo., Mrs. Henry Shaw and daughter from Uniontown, Pa., and Mr. and Mrs. Lavin Ferrall of Pittsburgh, Pa.

LORRAINE chose a navy blue suit with white and navy accessories with a white orchid from her wedding bouquet, for her honeymoon to Golden Lake, Mich., where her husband will be teaching for the University of Michigan school of natural resources.

They will make their home at Ann Arbor, where Frederick will be attending Graduate school at the University of Michigan.
