Sidney Morrell To Head Up AT&T Public Relations

BINGHAM FARMS—At a meeting of the International Telephone & Telegraph Corp. board of directors, Sydney W. Morrell, 82905 Bingham lane, was elected vice-president in charge of public relations.
Formerly general public relations manager of Ford Motor Co., Morrell succeeds Leonard Jacob II, who is retiring.
Born in England, Morrell was a reporter with the Daily Herald, Manchester, from 1930 to 1933, and a foreign correspondent of the London Daily Express from 1933 to 1940, being stationed successively in Vienna, Prague, and Budapest, and traveling widely in Europe and the Middle East.
From 1941 to 1947 he was on special assignment with Maj. Gen. William J. Donovan of the American Office of Strategic Services, and with the late Robert E. Sherwood, then head of the overseas branch of the Office of War Information.
From 1947 to 1952, Morrell had various organizational assignments with the United Nations in Europe and New York. He became an associate of the New York public relations firm of Earl Newson & Company in 1950 and a partner in 1951. He has served as general public relations manager of the Ford Motor Company from 1952 until the present.
Morrell, his wife, and two children will make their home in New York City.

"Triangle" Open House Tomorrow

Triangle Super Service, 1181 S. Woodward, Birmingham, is holding Open House June 28, 29 and 30, during which free cokes, balloons, lollipops, and gifts will be given out to customers, states Joe Virgilio, manager of the station.
