

Working Towards 29th Sale

ALREADY GATHERING books for AAUW's 29th annual sale planned for October are (from left) Mrs. Carl Theobald, co-chairman; Mrs. Kenneth Kesler, transportation chairman; and Mrs. Preston Weir, co-chairman. The group is interested in used books of every description, especially children's books. Contributors may contact Mrs. Kesler for pick-up service or books may be left at the Family Service garage, 188 Oakland. Mrs. Wier remarked the two thirds of the 450 members actively participate in the sale which benefits the fellowship program.

Dinner Honors N.Y. Visitor

Mrs. Katherine Prentiss Murphy of New York and Westbrook, Connecticut, was the guest of honor at a dinner party given Saturday evening by Dr. and Mrs. Donald Shelley at Clinton Inn, Greenfield Village.

Mrs. Murphy is internationally known as an antiquarian and philanthropist, and has recently donated most of her collection of outstanding examples of seventeenth and early eighteenth century American furniture and decorations to the New York Historical Society and Shelburne Village. Accompanying her from New York was her brother, Dr. Edmund A. Prentiss, Captain Price Glover, and Israel Sack, dean of American antique dealers.

After inspecting the Henry Ford Museum collection, the party, along with Dr. and Mrs. Shelley, and the museum staff, spent the weekend viewing American antique collections in the Birmingham area. Sunday they were entertained at a buffet breakfast by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Newsell of Hocheater, then to a buffet supper at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Keene of Evergreen road. Monday's schedule included a visit to the Antique Shop of Jess and Grace Pavay, then cocktails at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Meyer of Oxford road.

Past Presidents Name Officers

Mrs. Howard R. Estes was elected President of the Past Presidents club of MOMS, zone 1, at the annual election and luncheon at the home of Mrs. Harry Anderson of Royal Oak.

Other officers include Mrs. June Potts, first vice president; Mrs. Norman R. Porter, re-elected treasurer; Mrs. Harold Sharp, re-elected recording secretary; Mrs. Max Stanley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Harry Anderson, chairman; Mrs. Virgil Jones, historian; Mrs. Bert Hardy and Mrs. R. A. Cookson, publicity.

B'ham Country Club

Summer formal dinner and dance will be Saturday, July 6 at the Birmingham country club. Music will be furnished by Johnny Titus orchestra from 9-11. Ladies—formal and men—tuxedos or white jackets.

Sailed for Europe

The J. P. Judd family, 1322 Glenbury road sailed Wednesday on the Liberté for two months in Europe. Mr. and Mrs. Judd and daughters, Nancy and Susan plan to visit France, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Holland, Germany and England.

Commission Makes Two Reappointments

Reappointments to two Birmingham boards were made this week by the city commission. Rollie Reese, Birmingham's acting postmaster, was reappointed to the city recreation board for another five-year term. He originally was appointed in June, 1952. Herbert H. Gardner was reappointed for three years as the public member of the city employees' retirement board. Gardner's first appointment was in July 1944. Robert Hurley, of the DPW department, was re-elected to the retirement board, representing the general employees.
