Mr. and Mrs. Distler Host New York, Ohio Relatives

Taking advantage of the long week-end were Mr. and Mrs. E. Dumas and their children, Kenny, Ricky, Susan and Courtney. Mr. Dumas is a resident of N. Y. to visit Mrs. Dumas' sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler of 881 Brooklawn road. To make the reunion complete, Mrs. Distler's parents and grandmothers, Mr. and Mrs. A. McKenna and Mrs. David T. Temple, drove from Shaker Heights, Ohio for the week-end.

Memorable moments were spent touring between the Detroit zoo, which held the children's interest, and Selfridge air force base which intrigued the men.

To cap and climax the festivities was a cocktail dinner party given by the Distlers to introduce a few of their friends to their houseguests.

Their guest list included Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker, Mr. John Ward, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Priesner, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Gara and Mr. and Mrs. James Adams.

After dinner the group enjoyed a scavenger hunt and charades.

The St. Jane de Chantal guild held its monthly meeting in the newly decorated basement of Mrs. Thomas Schulte, of 1574 Witherbee road.

Mrs. Charles Penninger conducted the business meeting and immediately presented a gift to their first chairman, Mrs. Clyde Mulhern. The main business of the evening was to make arrangements and set up committees for a fair to be held at Holy Name church in the late fall.

The women visited over coffee and dessert after the meeting adjourned. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Leo Clougherty and Mrs. Mary Morrison. The surprise package was won by the hostess, Mrs. Schulte.

Celebrating his third birthday, Dane Christy was guest of honor at a luncheon entertaining 18 of his neighborhood playmates.

Enjoying the bunny birthday cake were Heidi Hammond, Vicki Jacobs, Stevie Pepper, Pamie Nelson, Stevie Miner, Timmie Terry, Jimmy Eckberg, Dougie and Dora Carpenter, Freddie and Debbie Dye, Betsy Welch and Dane's sister, Debbie. For favors the children received pogo sticks.

Dane is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Christy of 974 Brooklawn road.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert McKibben and their 3-month-old son, Bobby, had as their houseguests Mr. and Mrs. William Puskis, who hail from Hammond, Ind. Also visiting were the Puskis' children, Mary Kay and Johnnie. The occasion for the visit was to see the McKibbens new home at 1227 Wrenwood road.

Mr. and Mrs. James Dodds of 791 Eton road proudly announce the arrival of their second son, Daniel Raymond, born May 14 at William Beaumont hospital in Royal Oak. The baby weighed 7 pounds 14 oz. At home to greet his new brother was 2-year-old Bruce.

Thomas Patrick Gorman was christened May 26 at Holy Name church and to celebrate the occasion, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gorman of 1020 Brooklawn road, entertained his godparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Brown of Oak Park. Along with the christening, the Gormans were celebrating their fifth wedding anniversary. Joining in on the festivities were Tommy's sister and brother, Nancy and Michael.

Bowmie troop No. 604, along with girl scout troop No. 604, spent the weekend at Holiday House at Pine Lake.

The girl scouts prepared meals and worked on their badges with the help of their leaders, Mrs. Ruth ger, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Urganhart, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. Bud Prew.

After a delicious meal and an evening of dancing, the group returned once more to the Hayes residence for an early breakfast.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Crane of 1687 Graefield road flew to Chicago recently with their 10-month-old son, Christopher, for the Crane to attend to business at the Michael Reese medical center.

Mrs. Charles Benson entertained her bridge group recently in her home at 988 Brooklawn road, Troyton Manor. Prior to the evening of cards, Mrs. Benson served dessert and coffee to Mrs. Robert Welch, Mrs. William Dye, Mrs. James Trow, Mrs. Robert Sims, Mrs. William Vocht, Mrs. Ford Banes and Mrs. Robert Distler.

To celebrate their daughter Lynn's birthday on May 28, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Oldan of Derby road entertained some of her Pembroke school friends and neighbors.

Those invited for the afternoon festivities were Linda and Sandra Weith, Pamela Petree, Hap and J. Scott Hanson, Diane Young, Ingrid Westin, Cheryl Wraether, Nancy Senstaken, Tom Van Zanten, Barbara Eddy and Karen Craig.

The girls' favorite Ginny and cinette dolls was the theme of the party and they received as favors wrist watches for themselves and their dolls. The boys had more interest in the tug boats they received.

After time out for fun and games, the group sat down to ice cream and gum drop cup cakes.
