Bloomfield Hills Billboard

By Barbara VAN DYK

Nowadays the only thing students get hollered at for is autographing yearbooks. Everyone seems to be in on the act, because over 400 Hillerests were distributed this past week. Head saleswoman was Ellen Strong. She sold the product showing long hours of work by the whole staff of seniors headed by Jay Miller and Betsy Arnold.

Tomorrow is the big assembly honoring many students for their achievements scholastically as well as athletically. It also is the time for the announcement of the best all-around senior of this year.

Another thing symbolic of the closing of school everywhere is the annual junior-senior prom. This year it's "Almost Paradise", to be held Saturday in the gymnasium. Decorations are being arranged by Gretchen Raeder.

This year's baccalaureate sermon will be delivered by the Rev. Robert DeWitt at Christ Church Cranbrook Sunday at 4 p.m.

Exam schedules have been arranged so that they will begin Monday morning and will terminate by Wednesday noon. Students who do not have an exam scheduled for a certain period are not required to stay on the school grounds.

School out June 12!! School closes June 14.

Commencement exercises are to be held Thursday evening, June 13, in the high school gym. Perhaps you have received an engraved invitation from a Bloomfield senior with his or her name card in it.
