

The Beverlys

ALLEN STOCKER
MIDWEST 4-1038

WEST BEVERLY - EAST BEVERLY

Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. O'Rourke of Hillcrest had a small dinner party Saturday evening honoring the Williams Rosses who are moving from East Beverly. Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Ganchan and Mrs. S. I. Whittlesy were the other guests at the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert M. Shilson of Ingleswood also entertained last Saturday night. Their guests for dinner were Mr. and Mrs. Milton Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Cross and Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Tech, all of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. and Mrs. Clark Bennett and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. McLaren, of Birmingham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Harbage of Sylvan Lane and their neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. H. Hall and Mr. and Mrs. M. Forsyth, journeyed out to Kingsley Inn last Saturday night to celebrate Mr. Harbage's birthday.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Forsyth of Ingleswood had as their house guest over the holiday week-end Mr. Rose Drexler of Indianapolis, a former neighbor and good friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Marchetti of Auburn recently returned from a three week vacation in Pennsylvania and Florida. They visited Marchetti's parents in Pennsylvania where they left their two children, Janet, 2, and Larry, 4, while they spent two weeks at Pompano beach. They travelled down the east coast, making stops at Arlington, Va., Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Cypress Gardens, and other spots of interest.

Lost Lake woods in Northern Michigan had some visitors from East Beverly over the week-end, some of whom were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sutz, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Colombo, Mr. and Mrs. George Prokoff, Mr. and Mrs. Howdy Brewer, and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Marchetti.

David, son of Mr. and Mrs. David

Beverly School 6th Grade Spend Week At Proud Lk. Camp

WEST BEVERLY — Mr. A. Swartz's sixth graders of Beverly school have returned from a week's camping trip at Proud Lake Educational camp. The children participated in activities of all kind as well as work.

Mr. Wilson from the state conservation department gave a talk on game and animal management and Mr. Hungerford gave a talk on tree identification.

Teachers who attended were Mrs. Helen Frick, from Adams school; Miss Alma Fassbender, music teacher from Bloomfield and Birmingham schools; Mrs. Carolyn Switzer, Bloomfield school arts and crafts, and two teachers from Michigan State college.

Have You Met . . .

The Fred J. Austin on Inglewood? They moved here from Detroit where he is a district representative for Globe-Wernicke Co. Austin is a graduate of the University of Toronto, a fourth degree Knight of Columbus and is on the Redford council of the third degree. Mrs. Austin also attended the University of Toronto. Both enjoy golf. Mrs. Austin's hobby is refurnishing furniture, both for herself and for her friends.

Schutte of Beverly road, spent the holiday week-end with his parents. David is a sophomore at Michigan State university.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cavell of Kinross journeyed into Detroit Saturday to attend the wedding of Patricia Ann Slaney and Frank Petermark III at St. Scholastica church and later the reception at Devon Gardens.

To Meet Tuesday

WEST BEVERLY — The regular monthly meeting of the West Beverly sewing group will be held Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Donald Kalmbach, 1880 Bedford road. Co-hostesses for the day will be Mrs. Kenneth Berkeley and Mrs. Herbert Wyatt.

Seek Donors for Beverly Blood Bank

The Beverly community blood bank recruitment has launched its program to secure donors for blood July 1 at Beverly school. The committee urges you, if you are physically able, to make an appointment to donate a pint of blood to save someone's life—it could be yours. Your appointment can be made through the representatives of the following churches and associations:

Peace American Lutheran church, Mrs. Gladys Leiber, 10240 Madeline; Our Lady Queen of Martyrs church, Mrs. Eunice Kuzko, 7238 Beverly Road; Ascension Lutheran church, Mrs. Dorothy Barr, 15905 W. Fourteen Mile; Beverly Hills Baptist church, Rev. Roy Pitts, 3008 Prairie, Royal Oak; Beverly-Greenfield association, Mrs. Oia Schutte, 32015 Beverly circle, Mrs. Pat Dupler, 32031 Auburn and Mrs. Clair DuVall, 19929 Lauderdale; Valley Woods women's association, Mrs. Jean Kittle, 32000 Westlady; Beverly Hills improvement association No. 5, Mrs. Marion Paul, 17835 Locherie and Mrs. Marge Peterson, 17829 Locherie.

Also Beverly Manor, Mrs. Joan Karp, 31245 Sheridan and Mrs. Gladys Leiber, 10240 Madeline; Beverly Artisan, Mrs. Marie Tomank, 31150 E. Rutland; South Berkshires, Mrs. Marge Brannack, 20635 W. Thirteen Mile; West Beverly, Mrs. M. Ganchan, 32477 Rochester and Mrs. Helen Burke, 18214 Warwick; Beverly Golfhurst, Mrs. Al LaCivita, 32215 Sheridan.

Are you thinking of buying a new home? Then read the "For Sale-Houses" columns on the Classified Ad pages of this week's Eccentric.

Guy Antonelli Plans $100,000 Building

LATHRUP — Guy Antonelli, Lathrup contractor, has requested a permit to build a 258x44-foot building for professional offices on the east side of Southfield between Cambridge and California, directly across the street from his present building. To cost about $100,000 the all-brick building, if approved by city zoning board, would cover an entire block.

Pool Completion Delayed 8 Weeks

SOUTHFIELD — Hundreds of Southfield youngsters were disappointed last week when it was announced that the Southfield high school pool would not be ready for use for another eight weeks.

A long and unforeseen delay of tile delivery to finish the beautiful natatorium caused cancellation of all summer programs planned by the recreation department. The recreation department will notify parents shortly as to how refunding of deposits will be handled.

Southfield MOMS Unit Holds Party

SOUTHFIELD — MOMS of America unit No. 63 of Southfield held a surprise party recently for Mrs. James Reddie who left Thursday for a trip to Scotland. Mrs. Reddie will spend eight weeks there visiting relatives. Mrs. Thomas McGee, 28457 Fairfax, was host to the affair. A secret pal revealing was a part of the meeting. Saturday the MOMS took cakes and pies to serve to the USO in Detroit. Attending were Mrs. Gordon Stevenson, Mrs. Wilbur Wort, Mrs. Charles Warner and Mr. Thomas McGee. Next business will be held at 3 p.m. next Thursday at the home of Mrs. Bertha Collins of 28573 Marshall avenue.

Bargains galore in Want Ads.

East Beverly Group Holds Last Meeting At Detroit Today

EAST BEVERLY — The final meeting of the East Beverly national farm and garden association will be a luncheon held at the Detroit boat club today. New officers will be installed, and a trip through the Belle Isle conservatory is planned prior to the luncheon.

Mrs. Albert Allmayer has conducted the first of a series of six lessons in flower arrangement for members. These lessons are held at the home of Mrs. Norman Boline, Sheridan Dr.

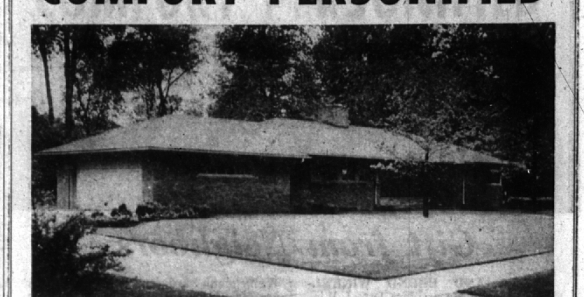

Overlooks Winding Franklin River

OWNER OFFERS THIS ONE FLOOR RANCH . . . ONE OF THIS AREA'S MOST PICTURESQUE SETTINGS WITH IDEAL VIEW OF RIVER AS IT WINDS THROUGH WOODS.

Enjoy 2½ acres close to Detroit. 13 Mile-Lahser area with low taxes and beautiful landscape. Paneled Library 12 x 12 — Kitchen 12 x 12 — Large Utility 3 or 4 Bedrooms — 3 Complete Baths — 3 Car Garage Living Room 15 x 25 — Dining Room 13 x 25 — Porch 12 x 25 Fenced — Sprinkler System — Fully Carpeted — Large Attic — Full Basement — Block Top Driveway.

EVERYTHING IS IN EXCELLENT CONDITION
Call DI 1-1492 for Appointment—Week-Days Only

COMFORT PERSONIFIED

This "CUSTOM" home has everything for family comfort and living ease. 3 large bedrooms, 2½ tiled baths, and full basement with fireplace recreation room. The St. Charles kitchen has all the built-ins and is conveniently arranged with built-in planning desk and large eating space. Exceptional views of 160 ft. wooded lot from every room with their many Thermopane and Anderson windows. Beautifully placed in Beverly Hills just 3 blocks from Country Club. An EXECUTIVE home that is QUALITY throughout.

CHAMBERLAIN

Woodward at 14½ Mile REALTORS MI 6-6000
BIRMINGHAM, MICH. JO 6-1527

CHOOSE YOUR NEW LOCATION

Do you have a growing family? Then you require a home with separate living areas — and near the Quarton School. This large ranch has:

2 bedrooms and baths on the main level, and upstairs 2 more bedrooms, delightfully decorated for the children, with a complete bath. There's closets throughout to meet your every need. Not just one—but two recreation rooms, plus a library and screened porch.

These large rooms, detailed in custom features are the problem solver for an active family.

Just a skip over to Holy Name School. Spacious Cape Cod, pleasingly shaded by trees in a grand neighborhood, and so convenient to everything, including transportation.

3 bedrooms (one is on the first floor) Extra low downstair. Pine paneled den. Dining El. Fireplace in the 24' living room, snack bar in the kitchen. Full basement. Two car garage. All aluminum storms and screens. Modulo control furnace.

Full price is only $22,500 for a top-notch home. $5000 DOWN

Does your position demand entertaining? Bloomfield Village is the address to acquire; this Colonial has the floor plan to meet your requirements.

Formal living room with a fireplace. Adjoining is the Lauderdale room with built-in features. Paneled library. Powder room. Storage closets in the attached garage. Upstairs are 3 bedrooms and 2 baths.

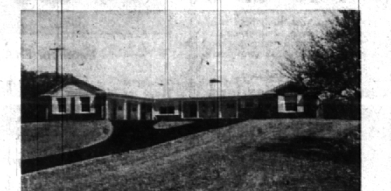

Here is a house that rises to any occasion. Only four years old; and only $47,500, including the carpeting.

Move into a new neighborhood in the Bloomfield School district. This year old ranch typifies the new homes comprising this fresh new subdivision.

3 bedrooms, plus a library paneled in ash. Deluxe kitchen has built-in Hot Point range and oven with rotisserie. 2 deluxe baths, one including an exceptionally large powder room area. Colonial fireplace. Separate dining room. Plastered garage. Carpets throughout.

The owner is losing $5000 on his made-to-order house built in 1956, but sudden transfer East necessitates an immediate sale. We urge you to see and compare this ranch at $35,500.

Near Bloomfield Hills Country Club
A new home . . . a tribute to the elite Hills
An impressive foyer at once reveals the splendor of both the levels:

The living room, in which the fireplace is framed by imported white marble, overlooks an orchard. Opening off this is the family room, very beautifully paneled, with a brick wall fireplace. Beyond is the large breakfast room and perfectly planned kitchen, which also overlooks the countryside; the dining room, and three car garage.

The hall leads to 3 twin-size bedrooms, 2½ completely tiled baths where the Italian marble is repeated. The lower level activities room has a built-in barbecue in the fireplace, and opens to the outdoors. On this level a fourth bedroom and a bath may be finished.

A prestige address, unparalleled even in Bloomfield Hills $74,500.

Take a twelve month vacation for life! On your own private lake . . . The 100' x 530' site, sloping down to the lake, is perfect for barbecues and lawn parties. The house is in sound condition, thoroughly and most beautifully remodeled in 1951.

4 bedrooms, 2 baths, and 2 lavatories. Shower room for swimmers. 30' living room. 16' dining room. Huge glass screened and screened.

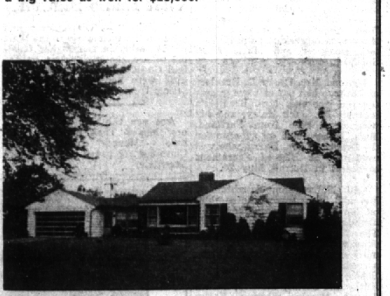

The home includes new Crane baseboard heating, large attic, copper plumbing, calculator, and many other extras as well as carpeting. A close to town location with all the peace of the country. $52,500.

True suburban contentment with all conveniences nearby, as well as fine neighbors. Schools: Beverly and Queen of Martyrs, are both quite new. City water and sewer. On a 108 ft. lot with a fine yard.

Dining room. Three bedrooms. Fully tiled basement. Living room fireplace. 17 foot enclosed porch. Two car attached garage. Recreation room features a bar.

Included is carpeting and drapes. The condition is absolutely tops. This has a special charm all its own, and it's a big value as well for $23,000.

Gardener's delight of over an acre! Fruit trees, a huge garden space, large strawberry and raspberry patches, this is a very pretty and unusual site.

Fireplaces in both the living room and pine paneled recreation room. 2 bedrooms plus the library. Full basement. Dining room. Two car attached garage.

Enjoy country living that's accessible to the Tech Center and Bloomfield Schools. The home was built in 1953. A great buy for $25,900.

Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc.
298 South Woodward
Midwest 4-6300
Birmingham, Michigan
Jordan 6-2323
Realtors