

The Birmingham Eccentric

SECTION F

Thursday, June 6, 1957

It may fall to a person to allow his thoughts to become momentarily depressed, for a variety of causes. Yet one knows that after a time, this depression will pass away. But why resignedly wait for this passing when, by a right change of attitude, it can be conquered?

Visits in Flint

Mrs. Harry B. Coen, 1269 Willow lane, Birmingham, is a guest of the L. W. Johnsons of Flint of the Annapolis Country club. Their son, L. W. Johnson II, is graduating from the United States Naval Academy June 7 at Annapolis, Md.

Village PTA Names New Board

A meeting of the new board of the Bloomfield Village PTA was held in the home of the incoming president, Mrs. Leland Beers, to discuss the program for the coming year. Others serving for the 1957-1958 season will be Mrs. F. J. Kress, mother, vice president; O. J. Richardson, father, vice president; Mrs. Robert Bassel, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Omar Petti, recording secretary; and Harry Swigert, treasurer.

The PTA Council delegates will be Mrs. D. Pierson Smith and Howard Maedel. Serving as the board of education representative will be Dr. F. M. Adams.

Other committee chairmen are Mrs. F. M. Adams, program; Mrs. W. G. Heller, publicity and historian; Mrs. Bruce Olsen, room mother; Mrs. G. E. McCutcheon, health; Mrs. Richard Allman, hospital; and Mrs. Richard Beaubien, membership.

The library will be in charge of Mrs. A. C. Chadwick, with Mrs. S. J. Gillen again serving as AAUW representative.

Historic Tour

ON THE SUN DECK of the SS Evangeline are Mr. and Mrs. Stan Brubaker of Dunblaine, Southfield township, on a cruise to Nassau and Havana. They had the opportunity of seeing the wonderful and historic sights of 'old' and 'new' Havana, visiting such places as the capitol building, the Prado and a cigar factory in fascinating Havana. On the list of musts in Nassau was a visit to tropical Paradise beach, seeing the sights of the quaint, old-world city while riding in a surrey through the winding street and browsing through the many attractive British shops.

Hills Pi Betas Plan Picnic Lunch

Bloomfield Hills alumnae club of Pi Beta Phi will have a picnic with swimming and the final meeting of the season Tuesday, June 11, at the Orchard Lake home of Mrs. S. W. Trythall. Hostesses for the luncheon will be Mrs. Douglas Jocelyn, Mrs. Russell Meyer and Mrs. John Charles.
