MR. AND MRS. J. RODNEY GRANGER

Eugenia Grayson Wed To J. Rodney Granger

Newlywed J. Rodney Grangers are at home at 3382 Coolidge highway, Royal Oak, after a wedding trip to Ludington, Mich.

The bride was Eugenia Grayson before her marriage March 2 in the First Methodist church of Royal Oak. The Rev. Paul Durham read the double-ring candlelight rites before 200 wedding guests.

Eugenia is the daughter of Mrs. Leonard C. Grayson of Royal Oak and her husband's parents are the J. S. Grangers, 6730 Glenway, Birmingham.

THE BRIDE wore sheer nylon over her satin fitted bodice and Venice lace accented the scooped neckline and short shirred sleeves. Folds of the bouffant skirt fell into a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion fell from a half-hat and she carried a cascade of eucharist lilies, tiny white rosebuds, baby mums and English ivy.

Linda Lyon was maid of honor in a ballerina length gown of nylon tulle with velveteen trim and a velveteen jacket in Arabian peacock. She wore a headdress of tulle and velvet and carried a colonial bouquet of yellow roses, whit baby mums and white snapdragons.

Bridesmaids were Judy Granger, Carolyn Jean Kerr and Sara Ann Grayson in frocks identical to the honor maid's.

ROBERT Moehlman was best man. Seating the guests were Stanley Granger, James Rowland and Lee Solomon.

Mrs. Grayson chose horizon blue lace over taffeta with matching hat and shoes. Rodney's mother wore beige lace over toast with matching accessories. Both mothers had pink roses attached to their purses.

A reception in the church parlors followed the ceremony.

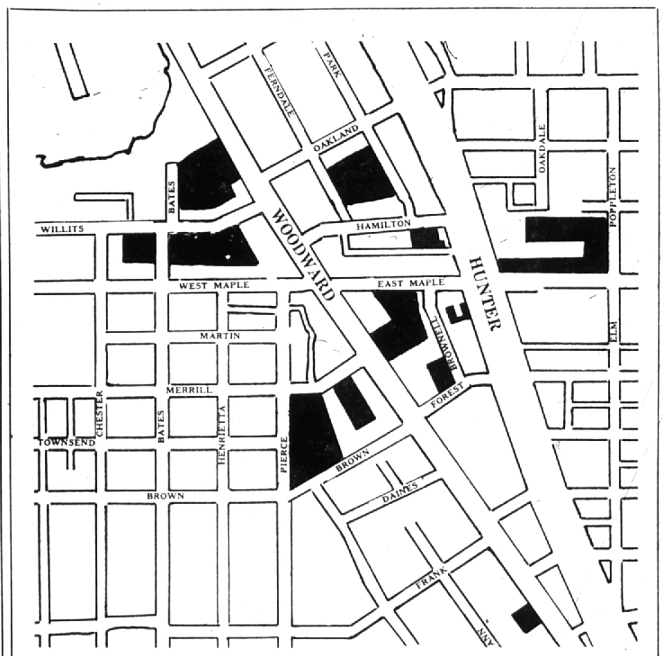
Shopping Is Convenient In Birmingham



On the map above are indicated the offstreet parking facilities in Birmingham. They include municipal as well as privately-owned lots. All are open to the public. In addition to offstreet parking, 600 metered spaces are available on the streets in the downtown area.

The most recently opened lot is the municipal lot located between Hamilton and Oakland. Featuring many all-day meters among its 177 parking spaces, it's a sure bet for quick parking any day of the week, and it's only 2 minutes from Woodward and Maple. Another municipal lot is located at Pierce and Brown streets. Two other municipal lots are located at Hamilton, and the one at Forest and Brownell is under construction and will soon be open to the public. Every store in Birmingham is within a minutes' walk from one of these many lots. Shop in Birmingham, It's Convenient!

Where There Is Always Plenty of Parking

Now, added to the wonderfully varied shopping facilities in Birmingham is added a convenience you may never have dreamed existed. Parking facilities for over 4000 cars.

An offstreet parking development program backed by the Birmingham retail merchants and the Chamber of Commerce has accounted for the rapid increase in parking facilities in Birmingham, facilities that mean SHOPPING CONVENIENCE FOR YOU.

Birmingham is adding more than parking to its repertoire of shopper facilities. Last year 76 new and remodeled stores offered the latest in redesigned quarters. You'll find every type of store in Birmingham and products in every price range.
