Troop 826 Brownies Attend Performance of Ice Show

Several Troop 826 Brownies of Pembroke school had an enjoyable afternoon Saturday when they attended a performance of the "Ice Capades" at Olympia stadium in Detroit.

The girls were accompanied by Mrs. William Mahan and Mrs. Robert Lippard. Those who went on the jaunt were Betty and Susan Barnes, Wendy Mahan, Susan Dietrich, Sharon Miner, Dee Durkee, Mary and Sandy Lippard, and Sherri Smith.

Most of these girls were among those who spent every Wednesday afternoon in February at the Elton Park skating rink learning to skate, as a troop project.

The Greenwood section of this area is fast becoming populated. New residents on this street are Mr. and Mrs. William J. Cronin who moved here from Detroit recently. They have two grown sons, Arthur, who lives with his family in St. Clair Shores, and Charles who works out of town.

Mrs. Cronin spends a great deal of her time with the Bon Secours hospital assistance league, of which she is a member.

The Cronins just recently returned from a Florida vacation of three weeks. They spent some time at Ft. Lauderdale, then spent the remainder of the vacation touring the state of Florida.

Graefield Terrace also has newcomers with the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Evans and their two
