Candidate Finding Former Residents On Campaign Trips

On her speaking trips throughout the state, Mrs. Ethel Jocelyn Watt, Birmingham's Republican candidate for University of Michigan regent, has found active supporters in friends who are former Birmingham residents.

In Traverse City, where she's speaking today, Mrs. Watt is being aided in her campaign by Marie Votey, former principal of Walnut Lake school.

Working on Mrs. Watt's behalf in Holland is Carol Plumstead Kline, who was a director of Birmingham community house before she married and moved away.

WHEN SHE visited Crystal Falls and Newberry in the upper peninsula Tuesday and Wednesday, Mrs. Watt found Mrs. Joseph Herbert, widow of a former regent from the U. P., working in her behalf.

Tomorrow Mrs. Watt will attend an 11th district Republican congressional meeting in Gaylord, Saturday she is to be at a 10th district dinner in Clare.

Next week she will speak in Ann Arbor, Flint, Monroe, Adrian and Detroit.

Throughout the state, Mrs. Watt's supporters report, the candidate is being remembered for her work as the only woman executive member of the Michigan Alumni Phoenix Memorial Project for peacetime uses for atomic energy.

MS Degree to Beers

Carl K. Beers received his master of science degree from Ohio State University in graduation exercises Friday at the Columbus, Ohio, school.

Hills Students Win Art, Music Awards

Two Bloomfield Hills high school seniors have been selected as the first recipients of new art and music scholarships that will permit them a summer's study in Europe. They are Susan L. Kennedy, 905 Stoneleigh drive, and Arthur Plaxton, 927 Southdown. Miss Kennedy was the art winner, while Plaxton was awarded the music scholarship, each valued at in excess of $800.

The awards are provided by the Robert C. J. Traub family as a memorial to him. As a businessman, he had a great interest in art and music.

The music alternate is Leticia Ann Finney, 3436 3415 Marilyn lane, and Ellen Sue Strong, 3337 Orchard Lake, is the art alternate.
