

WNFGA Branches Name Committees For April 3 Tea

Mrs. John C. Calhoun and Mrs. J. W. Shank are co-chairmen of a tea planned April 3 by several branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association. Committees for the event were formed recently at a meeting in Mrs. Shank's home on Warwick in Southfield township. An Oriental theme is planned for the tea, scheduled for 12:30 p.m. at the Community House, C. Reasoner from West Beverly branch; Mrs. Calhoun and Mrs. J.

Newly Wed Coryells Honeymoon in Florida

Ralph I. Coryell, Jr., claimed his bride in a Saturday afternoon ceremony at Indian Hill church, Cincinnati, Ohio. Rev. Luther Tucker solemnized the rites in the presence of 250 guests.

Parents of the newlyweds are the Ralph I. Coryells of Farmington, formerly of Birmingham, and the H. B. Asquiths of Cincinnati. Present for the ceremony, from Birmingham, were the Henry C. McQueens.

A FLOOR length gown of white lace and pleated net was worn by the bride. The lace bodice was designed with a sabbine neckline and panels of lace accented the pleated net skirt. Her fingertip length veil cascaded from a lace cap. Lace from her grandmother's wedding dress outlined her bouquet of white flowers and greens.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Fredrick V. Geier, Jr., accented her white nylon tulle ballerina length dress with violet hand shoes and colored ribbed knit dress worn by Mrs. Asquith. The mother of the groom chose brown accessories for her blue lace dress. Her flowers were yellow orchids.

AS FLOWER girl, Mary Thorton was dressed in a white organza and lace frock. Her halo and thin bouquet were of violets.

John Thornton was best man and guests were ushered by Harold N. Shible, Robert Keefe and Rodman Robinson.

A pink hat, gloves and corsage of clematis accepted the bride.

When Mary and Ralph return from honeymoon in Florida, they will make their home at 6643 Montgomery road, Cincinnati.
