

MRS. RONALD H. ROLPH

MRS. DONALD W. ROLPH

Twin Brothers and Brides To Reside Near Army Posts

Marilyn Rose Frida and Ronald Herbert Rolph exchanged wedding vows and rings Saturday afternoon at Davisburg Methodist church. Two hundred guests witnessed the ceremony, solemnized by Rev. Marshall Saunders. A reception followed in the church parlors.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Montgomery of Davisburg. The George S. Rolphs of Chapin street, Birmingham, are parents of the groom.

MARILYN'S floor length bridal gown was fashioned of lace and nylon tulle over satin. The lace bodice was designed with sabrina neckline and wrist-pointed sleeves. Appliques of lace extended from a waistline to the hem of the bouffant tulle skirt.

Seed pearls trimmed the lace crown securing her veil of silk illusion. A white orchid centered her bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

A bouquet of pink roses and blue iris and feathered carnations accented the blue silk tulle ballerina length dress worn by the matron of honor, Mrs. Kenneth Rathburn, of Drayton Plains, cousin of the bride.

Mrs. Albert Brown, bridesmaid, was gowned in pink silk tulle. Her flowers were white roses and carnations with blue iris.

BEST MAN was Donald Rolph, twin brother of the groom. Another brother, George, and Harry Pierre of Howell and Joan Dayport of Mt. Pleasant seated guests.

The bride's going-away costume was a navy blue suit with patent accessories. The end of this month, the newlyweds will take a wedding trip through the southwest, on route to Fort Bliss, Texas, where Ronald will be stationed as a lieutenant in the United States Army.

First Congregational church in Port Huron was the scene of the March 9 rites uniting in marriage Marilyn Joyce Bossardet, daughter of the Lester E. Bossardets of Port Huron, and Donald William Rolph, son of Mr. and Mrs. George S. Rolph, Sr., of Chapin street, Birmingham.

Squires trimmed the Victorian styled collar of the bride's lace over satin wedding gown, and the skirt terminated in a chapel length train. Her veil cascaded from a tiara of lace accented with rhinestones and pearls. She carried a cascade arrangement of white carnations, gardenias and irys.

ALTHEA ROLPH, sister of the groom, as maid of honor, was gowned in a pastel yellow dress and boutonniere, and carried a bouquet of yellow roses and white carnations.

Pastel blue gowns and headpieces were worn by the bridesmaid, Beverly A. Belcher, cousin of the bride, and the junior bridesmaid, Patricia Ann Bossardet, sister of the bride. Colonial bouquets of white carnations and red roses completed their ensembles.

Ronald H. Rolph was best man for his twin brother. Guests were ushered by Richard J. Malia and Robert M. Bossardet.

AFTER a reception in the church's fellowship room, the young couple left for a short honeymoon. The new Mrs. Rolph's traveling costume was a three-piece ensemble of navy blue wool jersey, accented by navy and white accessories and a corsage of red and white carnations.

On March 23, Donald and his bride will leave for Camp Gordon, Georgia, where he will be stationed as a lieutenant in the United States Army.

No Trucks—No Heat . . .

WHEN THE COLD WINDS blow and the snowflakes fly and you call on your furnace to keep your loved ones cozy and warm, remember—

If you burn coal, trucks keep your bin full — if you've an oil burner, trucks see that your fuel oil tank is never empty.

Yes, it would be a long, cold winter without motor transport—in more ways than one. Any way you look at it, you just couldn't live as you do without motor trucks, using Michigan's fine highway system to serve you night and day, to keep you and your family fed, clothed, warm and comfortable.

If you've got it, a truck brought it!
