SOUTHFIELD Democratic Women's club are working on a Get-Out-the-Vote campaign for the April 1 election. Club members' ultimate goal is for a township system in the township, which in the memory of old-time Democrats, the township has never had. Don Swanson, they say is the first Democrat in 32 years to serve on the township board. This evening a social get-together to celebrate the club's second anniversary will be held at the home of Mrs. John Dzenzel on Sherman road, where Irene Murphy, Democratic candidate for U.S. 11th district will be guest of honor. At work compiling voter lists are (from left) Mrs. S. James Clarkson, Mrs. Don Swanson, Mrs. Verne Pickford and Mrs. Wilbur Thompson.
