Recommends Beautification Of Shain Park

To the Editor:
At its most recent regular meeting, the board of directors of the Birmingham branch, Woman's National Farm and Garden Association, passed unanimously a resolution in favor of the improvement of Shain Park.

This project has been close to our hearts for a number of years, as you may know. It has been discussed many times at both our Board meetings and our general meetings.

We believe that the beautification of Shain Park will reflect credit on our community, will enhance the value of the property which surrounds it, and will offer a place of rest and refreshment that will be welcome both to our citizens and to the many employees of business establishments in the midtown area.

By comparison with other communities, we are most fortunate in having a resource such as Shain Park. In the development of a civic center for Detroit, every square foot of space for lawn, trees and shrubs has been acquired only at great cost. Detroit nevertheless considers this expense worth while.

Thanks to the sound planning of Birmingham's leaders in the past, our city already has a civic center surrounded by attractive and heavily patronized public buildings, including the Municipal building, Baldwin public library, the Post Office and the Community House. We should see that this area is not permitted to deteriorate through neglect.

Perhaps the planting of a tree in honor of Mr. Don Eberhart in Shain Park on Saturday, February 2, 1957, can become the start of a program for general improvement of the park. It is not necessary that this program be unduly expensive. The use of flowering trees and shrubs in keeping with sound principles of modern landscape design can convert our park into a place of year-round beauty and distinction without requiring costly upkeep.

In behalf of the 350 members of our organization, we urge that you encourage our City Commission to give the most serious consideration to a positive program that will make Shain Park the core of a beautiful Birmingham Civic Center.

Voters' Guides Ready Today

Biographical information on candidates for city and state offices running in the April 1 election will be given Birmingham voters today, tomorrow and Saturday in "Voters' Guides" published by the local League of Women Voters.

The "Voters' Guides" are being distributed early this year so that a school election flyer can be given voters at the same time. This flyer will explain the Birmingham board of education proposal, which will be voted upon at a special election next Monday, to increase the school mill levy to 6 ($45 per $1000).

The school mill levy has been 3.5 for the past five years. The League is supporting the proposed school levy.

OF SPECIAL interest to Birmingham voters are the interviews with candidates for city commission.

Each answered the question: "What would you, as a member of the Birmingham Commission, like to see done in the following fields: city planning, roads, recreational facilities and cooperation in regional area planning?"

Candidates for the Baldwin Public Library board are also covered in the Guides.

ON THE STATE level information is given on the candidates for state highway commissioner, state superintendent of public instruction, board of regents of the University of Michigan, the state
