

Simplicity Stars In Teen Headgear

Simplicity stars in teen hats and are seldom trimmed with more than a grosgrain band ending in a bow or streamer. For dress-up, teen hats sometimes take a flower wreath or nose-pasties, white or natural shades.

ABBIE ANDERMAN wears a modified toque style chapeau in a gold hue, one of many Schiaparelli designs at Jacobson's. Topping the velvet brim is a supple crushed crown of braided straw.

Lengths Are News In Daytime Gloves

Longer lengths for daytime wear come to the fore in new gloves, although the classic shortie continues important. The longer gloves are liked to accent slim lines and to wear with capes or bracelet length sleeves. Included are gloves which reach midway between wrist and elbow, 2-button elbow lengths and 12-button above-elbow styles, the latter often daintily shirred, jeweled or embroidered. News-making, too, is the wide range of color in washable Launder-Leather gloves. These gloves, in washable kidskin, pigskin or suede, display variations on every color of the rainbow, plus neutral hues.

For Packing

Practical packing material is transparent, self-adhering plastic film. It keeps articles separate and easily visible.

Offer Beauty

Purse size containers of perfume now offer beauty of design as well as convenience.

Have Dainty Look

Fabrics for maternity wear are delicate yet rich.

Belts are Back
Belts return to the fashion spot—light. Besides leather and fabric belts, spring features a variety of cummerbunds and gashes.

MUCH IN EVIDENCE on the fashion scene this spring is the profile hat, harking back to the days of the 'twenties', providing a perfect complement to Chanel-inspired dresses and suits. This one, from Jacobson's, is of fine man straw, in black, accented by a jeweled clip. It's modeled by Abbie Anderman of Drury Lane, Bloomfield township.

Fabrics for Home Display Richness In Wide Variety

Home fabrics display spring's look of elegance with new fibers, blends and synthetics adding both to their range and quality of service. Accents in color and texture. Light, clear tones, beautiful flower shades and iridescent colors are the most popular. Gleaming metallic threads add interest to an almost endless variety of fabrics—linens, laces, ribbons, straw-like, silks, hurbars, tweeds, cottons, sheers, blends and much more. Floral prints are favored with new emphasis on fernery and leaves. There is a wide variety of contemporary patterns and provincials and many inspired by the splendor of the Orient. Using fabrics as wall-covering is attracting new interest. There is also an increased use of matching wallpaper and fabrics, synchronizing fabrics with carpets and companion cloths for "mix-match" decorating.

Soft, Blended Hues Cue New Stockings For Accessory Role

Taking their cue from spring fashion and color preferences, hosiery stylists have designed new stockings as costume accessories in soft pale hues and color blends. To harmonize with navy costumes, there are nylons in Wedgewood gray and smoky blue grays. For the beige family, hose take a new color slant. Hosiery beiges have been blended with warm color tones—moss beige, cream, gold or apricot beige, and—very new—gray beige. Nylons in gray tones have also been color warmed. They range from misty pearl grays through pink, blue and mauve grays, and grays with a touch of violet or newly-tinted opalescence. For the high-fashion violet family, nylons show a variety of delicate, fresh-looking mauve tones, including mauve beige, mauve taupe rose and pink mauves, lavender and violet shadings.
