

MRS. ROBERT ALLEN JACOBY

Jacoby-Hoskin Rites Solemnized Saturday

Rev. Theodore Wugrazer solemnized the Saturday afternoon marriage of Carole Lee Hoskin and Robert Allen Jacoby, in Redeemer Lutheran church, Birmingham.

Following the ceremony, the newlyweds and their parents greeted guests at a reception in the Community House. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don W. Hoskin of Tewksbury lane. Mr. and Mrs. Lester A. Jacoby of Gunn Lake are parents of the groom.

A satin cummerbund, and was accented by a satin trimmed straw hat. A lace sheath in an abser of roses shade was selected by the mother of the groom. Her small hat was covered with blending flowers.

QUESTS were ushered by Robert Brady of East Lansing, William Hayes of Detroit and James Robinson of Sharon, Pa. Mark A. McIntosh of Kendallville, Ind., was best man.

Among out of town guests were the bride's great-grandmother, Mrs. Louis Authier, Sr., of Saginaw, Mr. and Mrs. U. W. Tervo of Rochester, Minn., Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Gress of Lima, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Authier, Jr., of Saginaw.

When the bride and groom left for a Florida honeymoon, the new Mrs. Jacoby was wearing a light blue silk suit with matching hat. Upon their return, they will make their home in East Lansing, where both are students at Michigan State University.

Social Chairman

Nancy Rutiz, social chairman for Delta Gamma sorority at Wittenberg college, Springfield, Ohio, appeared last week in a Springfield newspaper in a picture taken at her sorority's initiation tea. A sophisticated student, she is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rutiz of Jackson Park drive, Bloomfield township.

THE WOMEN'S ASSOCIATION for the Detroit Symphony orchestra began their maintenance fund campaign last week with a series of teas and luncheons. Mrs. Carl H. Zuber, Birmingham-Bloomfield area chairman, opened her home on Squirrel road, Bloomfield Hills, at a morning coffee for captains and workers from the area. Jim Hicks, (right), assistant manager of the Symphony, is showing the invitation, representative of those being mailed, inviting the public to become charter members of the newly-formed Society of Contributors to the Detroit Symphony, to Mrs. Zuber (center) and one of her workers, Mrs. Robert Day of Denbar, Bloomfield Hills.

St. Patrick's Day Party At Wendell Butler Home

It was an afternoon of the "wearing of the green" when 25 residents of Charing Cross Estates attended the St. Patrick's Day party at the Barnley road home of Mrs. Wendell Butler.

Some of the guests came in costumes. Mrs. Robert Busby came in a green coat, top hat, cane and a green beauty spot on her cheek. Mrs. Albert Pfaffler appeared in a green trimmed flared dress and a derby, while Mrs. Frank McGuire had on a green derby. Among the prizes given during the afternoon was a green scarf, green carnation corsage and a green neckerchief.

From the gaily decorated St. Patrick's table was served green rabbits, snark sandwiches, and green punch. A little leprechaun stood by and watched throughout the party.

It was a night for the Irish March 15, at the Eastover school when the St. Patrick's dance beckoned 100 persons. The multi-purpose room was decorated with large black pipes mounted on ever larger green shamrocks. There was a ballroom standard and square dancing with Sam Joan as the caller, and the evening's music was played by the Carl Zeumer orchestra.

The "spon dance" brought on much fun and laughter as each man tried to get rid of the spon before the music stopped. Refreshments for the evening included coffee, soft drinks and donuts. Everyone left at the end of the evening with the same thought—"let's do this again!"

The Charles Moores of 4775 Barnley drive announce the birth of a daughter, Molly Jo, on March 11. She was born at William Beaumont hospital weighing 7 lbs. 1 oz. The Moores have two other children, David, 5, and Susan, 4.

The Robert Wallaces of Tullamore drive have as houseguest, Mrs. Blaine Cochran of Pittsburgh, Pa. Mrs. Wallace's mother, Mrs. Cochran arrived a week ago and will be staying for some time.

CUB SCOUTS BOWL.
Cub Scouts of Den 3, Pack B-34, were taken by their den mother, Mrs. Robert Brodie, on a trip to the Bloomfield Lakes for bowling on the afternoon of March 18. The sport was thoroughly enjoyed by Cubs Tom Brodie, John Doffer, David Reuther and David Wietersen.

Returning home from a New York trip are the Thomas Claytons of Orchard Hill drive. They attended the convention of the mobile home show while there, and saw a bit of New York. A trip to Long Island to visit an old school chum, Mrs. Joseph Rice, was a highlight for Mrs. Clayton as they hadn't seen each other for 10 years.

The John Wolfs have just returned to their Juniper court home after spending a month in Miami Beach, Fla. They made their headquarters at the Pan American. Their daughter, Mrs. Jerome Wobrock and daughter Wendy, of Park Forest, Ill., spent a week enjoying the sun and surf with them. The Wolfs' son, Parker, John's wife visited them last weekend. Parker Wolf is attending Michigan State and is living in Lansing.

THE MAN WHO OWNED MOBY DICK

It was actually a too-big car. At get pumps, it drank like a fish. So he called it "Moby Dick."

It never had fun like a fish. Parking in was hard trying to squeeze a sash into a parking bowl.

He thought about trading "Moby" for an economical little foreign car. It was too little for 5 kids.

So he bought Rambler only car with room for six factors, plus European car economy, handling ease

32 MILES PER GALLON

Rambler's 1st in trade-in value among all low-priced cars, because it's the smartest buy, new or used.
