Newlywed Donald Degen Home From New York Trip

Mr. and Mrs. Donald W. Degen have returned from a honeymoon trip to New York and are making their home temporarily at 576 Merritt lane, Birmingham. Last April, they will move to Indianapolis, Ind., where Donald will be with the Esjed Division of Ford Motor Co.

Harold Hanson and Charles Van Riper

MRS. DEGEN is the former Carolyn Anne Staub, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Staub of Merritt lane. She and Donald, who is the son of Mrs. Nan Degen of Southfield township and Albert W. Degen of Pontiac, pledged their marriage vows early this month at Holy Name church. Four hundred guests witnessed the ceremony and were greeted at a reception at Ren Run Golf club. The bride was gownned in a peau de soie creation designed in princess lines with a chapel train. Her mantilla was of Venetian lace which she selected in Europe last year. A bouquet of ivy and stephanotis centered by an orchid completed her costume.

MRS. DONALD W. DEGEN

THE BRIDAL attendants carried pink flowers and wore blue lace gowns. Kathleen Faely was maid of honor and Bobbie Van Riper was flower girl. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Leo J. Bergers and Mrs. John P. Donovan, Jr. John Kent Moore was best man and ushers were Donald F. Staub.

Oakland OES Plans Brunch

WHAT IS A RUG CLEANING PLANT?

A rug cleaning plant is a place where the beauty and service of your rugs are greatly increased. JET CLEANING is descriptive of the process used in our modern, completely equipped plant to make sure that every last bit of dirt is removed to restore your rug to its original brightness. This powerful action is safe controlled and perfectly safe for all materials. ELECTRONICALLY CONTROLLED DRYING combines the exact degree of heat with precisely measured volumes of air. This mass is kept in constant motion in our fan-lined drying vault to give your rugs all the fluff softness they had when brand new. At Crescent, your rugs and carpets are cleaned with the most modern equipment available. Only the methods recommended by The National Institute of Rug Cleaning, Inc. are used. All you have to do is call LI 7-2922 to find out how inexpensive it is to have beautifully cleaned rugs and carpets. Member of The National Institute of Rug Cleaning, Inc.
