SECTION A

Page 1-B Our Lady School Picks Reading Champions Page 6-B Teen-Age Platter Party Photo Story Page 1-D Children, Adults Mark World Day of Prayer Page 6-D

Voters To Choose Three For Franklin Council Page 1-E Maple Splash to Ninth Straight EML Title Page 6-E

Cost-Sharing Plan

Suggested to Fix

This

AAUW Schedules Workshops At Community House

Sale of Land Nets

Block's Zoning May Decide NE B'ham's Future Muddled Commission

Is in the Middle as Owners Want Business, Neighborhood Objects

By GEORGE WM. AVERILL

The last thing Birmingham city officials need right now is nother lawsuit over rezoning.
But if they are going to get another one, they want to gure out the best defense in advance.
At stake, they are conyinced, is the future of the north-ast section of the city.

Muddy School Road

James Couzens Named Young Man of Year

STRICTLY FRESH

Organized

Sparket by a group of citizens concerned over problem of a popular Birmingham high school to certed community drive to aid the young fam soon. Platners have scheduled a kick-fold din a cityiside "George Miller Day" March 22

Tall propergroups at Candidates Also Must Keep Households Running Smoothly

IN HIS OFFICE at McBride Hardware company