

Women's Clubs To Establish Girls' Ranch

Representatives of 32 women's service clubs of Oakland County met Monday night at the Community house and elected Mrs. Margaret Newhouse as chairman of the organization to establish a Girls' Ranch. Mrs. Newhouse is a member of the Zonta club of Royal Oak and Ferndale.

GIRLS' Ranch will be patterned after Boys' Ranch, now in operation at Camp Oakland, near Oxford, Mich. It will provide a home for girls from the ages of 10 to 15 years, who are wards of the juvenile court.

The girls are not delinquents, but girls from broken homes or homes where they do not receive proper care.

JUDGE Arthur E. Moore of Oakland county probate court outlined the building program for the ranch. He set the cost for the building at approximately $50,000.

Four thousand dollars has already been pledged toward the project.

Other officers named were Mrs. Pat Hooper of the Sororist club of Ferndale, recording secretary; and Mrs. Anthony Duchemin of the Quota club of Oakland County, corresponding secretary.

The steering committee will be composed of a representative of each of the clubs in Oakland county, elected by the club itself.

The committee will be organized at the next meeting of the group at 8 p. m., Monday, April 1, at the Birmingham Community House.

Show Japanese Children's Items At Local Library

Typical articles used by Japanese children are on display in the boys' and girls' department of Balfour public library.

The articles were loaned to the library by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Girardin, Girardin, who is Birmingham's recreation director for the month of March. They are interested in the country led them to collect items to bring home.

Included are shoes, dimes, toys, dolls, and drawing and writing exercises made by Japanese school children.

The display will occupy bulletin boards and display case during the month. Library hours are 9:30 to 6:30, Monday through Thursday, 9:30 to 6:00 on Friday, and 9:30 to 5:30 on Saturday.

'Seal Island' Paintings on Five

CRANBROOK — Seventy-five years before Walt Disney's crew of photographers made the now famous movie "Seal Island," made by Wood Elliott (1848-1930), made the first pictorial record in the 1870's of the seal herds that populated the Pribilof islands.

Twenty-eight of these watercolor paintings, lent by the Smithsonian Institution traveling exhibition service, are on view at Cranbrook Institute of Science through March 17.

Sheffield Meeting

Meeting over Thursday at Embassy club at 7:45 p. m., the Sheffield estates civic association has announced that in addition to William Hutchinson, speakers will be Commissioner Mrs. Florence Willett and William Roberts, and Charles Dehndeger, Jr., commission candidate.

Linguists Needed By Army Reserve

Qualified Birmingham area men between the ages of 17 and 25 are now being accepted in the Military Intelligence Service Organization of the Army Reserve under new laws enacted by Congress.

Capt. George A. Cooney, intelligence commander at Fort Wayne, said qualified men would be assigned to language, editorial, photographic, administrative and order of battle teams.

Young men between the ages of 17 to 25 can enlist in the Army Reserve and perform six months active duty training and receive the remainder of their enlistment in the ready reserve, Capt. Cooney said.

Design Wins Prize

Tom Frank, of 410 Chesterfield, recently won second prize in the brochure cover competition sponsored by the Art Directors Club of Detroit. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Mark H. Frank, he is studying information design at the University of Michigan's school of architecture and design.

Plans Weaving Tour

Miss Marianne Strenzell is in charge of the March 14 meeting of the Michigan Weavers' Guild at 8:30 p. m. at Cranbrook.

She will take members on a tour of the weaving department, showing students' work as well as some of her own.

"BE PREPARED" is the Birmingham police department's motto. So even the two department clerks are studying with the entire force of regulars and auxiliaries in an 18-hour Red Cross first aid review course. Here Police Chief Ralph W. Moxley (right) and Patrolman Bill Andrews seem to enjoy their lesson as they practice bandaging, with clerks Mrs. Alma Jean Stewart (left) and Mrs. Wilma Mero as subjects. Fire department Captains Milford Fuller and C. G. Nunnally instruct the classes at the Chesterfield fire station.

BHS Social Clubs Initiate Members

After three weeks of strenuous pleading, Birmingham high school social clubs recently initiated new members.

New members of Black and White clubs are Ron Martin, Roger Kissam and Larry Kelly.

Club BHS's new members are Gordon Fox, Dennis Conlan, Dick Boley, Bob Lewis.

New members of Tiana are Janet Coyle, Julie Cowman, Barbara Biles, Jean Caldwell, Carolyn Campbell, Debbie Hatchings, Penny Bell, Jane Torreyer, Ann Buchanan, Evie Cooney, Joan Stafford, Linda Locke, Gail Weckesser, Carol McKnight, Kaye Murray, Linda Henning, Bethie Wood, Jackie Wood, Carol Sandelman, Deanne Kenoski, Pam Parkins, Sandra Voss and Barb Falcovier.

A New York package designer set up a camera by a display counter, and says that timed pictures prove the average woman takes just eight seconds to make up her mind what to buy.

Feminine Arrivals At Military Ball Get Special Escort

An honor guard will snap to attention as cars draw up to the Birmingham Community House Saturday night, and formally escorted "dates" are escorted inside by guard escorts.

Occasion is the 1957 military ball, sponsored by Birmingham's Civil Air Patrol from 9:30 to 12:30 p. m., with John Palmer's orchestra providing the music.

Chosen from candidates nominated by high school clubs, Miss Military Ball of 1957 will be selected by notes of ticket purchasers. Tickets are on sale at Grinnell's and Marty's records.

Youths Face Trial In Assault Case

Two of the youths charged with aggravated assault in the beating of Herbert Kannel, 16, of Birmingham, will go to trial on charges of aggravated assault. The two, Mack Hartman, 21, and Clifford Sutor, 18, both of Troy, stood mute when arraigned Monday in Oakland county circuit court. Trial date was not set, and they were released on $500 bond.

The driver, Douglas A. St. John, 2280 Dorchester, was ticketed for failure to yield right of way to a pedestrian in a crosswalk after the assault at Maple and Bates.

A second ticket for leaving the scene of a personal injury accident was issued to St. John.

More than 150 adult and children's books will be on exhibition. Some recent additions have not been in circulation, but will be available when the exhibit closes March 18.

Pedestrian Hit Crossing Maple

A Birmingham youth started to police Saturday that he did not see Mrs. Margaret Nimeth, of 1806 Banyard, who told police she was slightly injured when the 17-year-old's car struck her.

The driver, Douglas A. St. John, 2280 Dorchester, was ticketed for failure to yield right of way to a pedestrian in a crosswalk after the accident at Maple and Bates.

Not All Writers Live in East, Say Library Friends

Much good writing is coming out of the Midwest, and Michigan is well-represented among the leading writers of today, say the Friends of the Library. Three well-known Michigan authors, Harriet Arrose, Sylvia Cooper and Allan Spitzer, will take part in a panel discussion at their meeting at Balfour public library Tuesday at 8:15 p. m.

Originally scheduled to join the panelists, Gov. G. M. A. Marshall, Detroit News writer, was forced to cancel his plans because of an out-of-town story assignment.

There will be in the main reading room a display of books given to the library during the past six months by the Friends of the Li-

$70,000 Awarded For School Site

A temporary restraining order served on Douglas Jocelyn, Bloomfield Hills board of education secretary, at a board meeting Monday night is the latest step in a condemnation fight for new school property.

John A. Gilroy, Jr., board attorney, said yesterday that he would ask the court next Monday to dissolve the restraining order.

The co-partners—James W. Jenkins and two sons, James, Jr., and Edward D.—base their contention on the grounds the security of their mortgage on the property is jeopardized because they were not properly notified of the suit.

A circuit court condemnation jury ruled Friday that Bloomfield Hills board of education pay Mrs. Mary E. Jenkins $70,000 for 20 acres to be used as a site of a new elementary school.

Appraisals of the property at Quorton and Bayley roads given in court ranged from $65,000 to $204,800. Three professional appraisers hired by the Hills board of education gave court appraisals of $65,000, $70,000 and $71,800. The "damages" figure awarded by the jury was based on a price of $3,500 an acre.

ALLSTATE INSURANCE CO.

Condensation proceedings, the first in the Hills' present school building program, were brought against Mrs. Jenkins who lives on Inwood circle, W. Bloomfield township, when negotiations fell through with her and her sons. The site is to be used for a 500-student elementary school scheduled for completion by fall, 1958.

Three out of four traffic accidents happen in clear weather on dry roads.
