

'Heart' Classes Still Open

"Do you know that going up stairs uses seven to 15 times as much energy as on walking level, or that standing takes eight to 30 per cent more energy than sitting, or that bending uses 14 times as much energy as sitting"—these are only a few vital facts which were told to the "The Heart of the Home Classes" Monday and Wednesday mornings at the Community House.

Mrs. Norma Landon, the demonstrator, shows how to make homemaking easier, more efficient and more pleasant by means of props, slides, discussions and demonstrations.

Sorority Initiates

Mary Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Collins, 1504 Birmingham blvd., was initiated into Kappa Delta at the University of Michigan.

Florida Vacationers

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Eynon, 550 Half Moon, spent two weeks recently at the Beach Club hotel, Naples-On-The-Gulf, Florida.

SATURDAY was a big day for Engineering Society of Detroit Junior Wives. The group sponsored a buffet supper and dance with proceeds going for new equipment for the therapy center of Detroit Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. Among members from this area who helped prepare food for the event were (from left) Mrs. Leo L. Case of 1740 Witherbee, Troy township; Mrs. Edward W. Gabert of 1813 Derby, Birmingham, and Mrs. Bruce C. Butzier of 6041 Glyn-debourne, Troy township.

'My Fair Lady' Premier To Draw Many Localities

A great number of Birmingham and Bloomfield members of the Detroit Athletic Club will be in the throng at the club's "My Fair Lady" theater party at the Riviera Theater on March 25.

That night they will see the first performance in Detroit of this great musical production—it will be a private performance preceding the formal opening to the public of "My Fair Lady" on the next evening, the 26th.

The HAC has taken over the entire house of 2,200 seats, and arrangements for this March 25 date having been made many weeks ago after members indicated they'd like such a party. Membership response to mailed reservation cards resulted in a big over-subscription for the package plan of four main floor and two balcony seats per member.

The entertainment committee, chaired by Martin C. Callahan and including Bloomfield Hills members Harry J. Klingler and Hal G. Trump among others, has

AS A GAY prelude, there'll be a special dinner in the club's main dining room, Bontchartrain and Georgian rooms. Limited by space to 600, the festive dinner is slated for 6 o'clock to provide ample time. Many reservations already have been made for tables, and HAC'ers from Birmingham and Bloomfield, Grosse Pointe, Detroit and a sprinkling from out-state will join at the brilliant theater party.

Private bus transportation from the DAC to the theater is being arranged for those who wish it, provided they make advance reservations for bus seats. The buses will leave the club promptly at 6 p.m.

Oberlin Alums Raise Funds For Scholarship

One of several Oberlin college alumni groups, that gathered throughout the metropolitan area Saturday night, met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Scott of 715 Kenesaw, Birmingham.

The simultaneous potluck dinners were planned to raise funds for a scholarship granted yearly by Detroit area alumni.

The president of the Detroit group, Albert Turk of Birmingham and his wife, attended the local meeting. Also present were the Howard McFarlands, the George Howells, the Worthing Stanes, Professor and Mrs. Wallace Givens, Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Jackson and the Edward Hewitts.
