

Vows Said Saturday In Orthodox Church

Jo Ann Herro and George W. Henney were united in marriage Saturday in St. Nicholas Orthodox church. Father Benjamin Hoffiz solemnized the late afternoon rites.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond J. Herro of East Greenwich drive, Bloomfield township. Parents of the groom are the Wade Henneyes of Huntington Woods.

A GOWN of pure silk with lace appliques, was chosen by Jo Ann for her wedding day. Styled on princess lines, with short sleeves, it featured a portrait neckline outlined in lace. A headpiece of lace secured her illusion veil.

A floral arrangement of white orchids and long white kid gloves completed the bridal picture.

Mrs. Charles Darany served as matron of honor, and bridesmaids were Pat Howell, Sandy Unis, Minerva Ayoub and Jackie Bekolay. Their white chiffon frocks were accented by pink cummerbunds.

Dance Benefits The Handicapped

Valentine Dance sponsored by Kappa Alpha Theta sorority for benefit of Birmingham Association for Handicapped Children was a record-breaking success, according to Mrs. R. P. Sharpe, project committee chairman.

Mrs. Sharpe said all tickets were sold and a capacity crowd helped make the annual charity dance the most successful in its history.

Proceeds, approximately $350, have been turned over to the BAHIC treasury for support of that organization's Saturday play school and other projects in which the sorority is co-operating.

Two movies, "The World of Silence" and "The Helen Keller Story," will be shown at the regular meeting of BAHIC March 12 at the Birmingham Community House. There will be no charge and the public is invited to attend.

Scouts Plan International Program

Sixteen Girl Scout troops of the Bloomfield Hills neighborhood, and parents, will meet at the Bloomfield Hills high school from 7 to 8:30 o'clock on the night of March 12th. The meeting will be in the nature of an open house and an international program to help celebrate Girl Scout Week. March 12th is the 45th birthday anniversary of the founding of Girl Scouts.

Speakers of the evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Quimbo and their son and daughter, all from the Philippines, who are spending this year studying at Merrill Palmer school in Detroit. Their subject will be "Life As Lived Today in the Philippines," and they will perform some authentic Philippine dances.

Each of the sixteen Bloomfield Hills troops have made a 24 by 36 inch flag of another country in this World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts. These flags will be presented by a member of each troop in a flag ceremony to Mrs. Howard Semney, chairman of the Bloomfield Hills neighborhood. The presentation will be made by a Scout selected from each troop. The flags are to be retained by the neighborhood group for future Girl Scout ceremonies.

Girls from each troop will present their contribution to the Juliette Low World Friendship Fund. This Fund supports an interchange of scouts and guides with countries in the World Association and other international projects. Committee in charge of the Tuesday night program is chairman, Mrs. William Dewey, Mrs. John Gichrist and Mrs. Wilbur Saylor.
