

MARY ELLEN KIRBY Engaged Couple Plan April Vows

An April date has been set for the wedding of Mary Ellen Kirby to John Chester Hacker, Jr. Mary is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Kirby of East Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills. John, who is currently attending UCLA and affiliated with Sigma Alpha Epsilon, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Chester Hacker of Corona del Mar, Calif., formerly of Wakefield, Mass.

Denison Parents Hear Fund Launching Program

"Free enterprise in American education is as fully important as it is in American industry," said A. Blair Knapp, president of Denison university, Granville, Ohio, speaking before alumni and parents of the school at a dinner at Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills. The occasion was the launching of a Michigan canvass on behalf of a $1,500,000 national campaign for buildings and increased faculty salaries.

A minimum quota of $30,000 and a challenge goal of $35,000 was announced by Robert W. Engelhart, Bloomfield Hills, general chairman of the state executive committee and president of the Detroit Golf club, to be expected from the 462 parents and alumni. Also on the program was Edgar A. (Bud) Guest of Birmingham, one of the Birmingham members of the executive committee are Charles W. Blessed, Mrs. Stewart M. Cram, Genaro A. Flores, and Miss Marion McCracken of Bloomfield Hills. There are 119 students from the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills areas now attending Denison.

Social Gatherings Marks First Anniversary of St. Jane Guild

Members of St. Jane Guild of Holy Name church held a celebration party to mark their first year as an organization in Troyton Manor. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Maurice Reardon, 1076 Brooklawn court. Approximately 20 members were present. As a complete reversal of usual meeting procedure, no business was discussed and the evening was purely social. Members enjoyed an evening of cards, playing a special type of bridge that includes everyone, even non-bridge players. Following distribution of prizes, punch, coffee, and sandwiches were served. Prize winners were Mrs. Clyde Mulhern, Mrs. Mary Gill, Mrs. Richard Monley, Mrs. James Bower, Mrs. Judson Decker, and Mrs. William Kocht. Mrs. and Mrs. Richard Monley, of Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, announce the birth of their fourth child, Matthew Joseph. The baby was born Feb. 9, and weighed nine pounds. He has two brothers and a sister.

Recent newcomers to Graefield Terraces are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bahr, and daughter, Robin, 6 1/2 months old. The family came here following Bahr's recent discharge from the Marines, where he was stationed at Camp Le Jeune, at Jacksonville, N. C. Mr. Bahr has resumed law practice in the offices of Voorhies, Long, Ryan, and McNair, in Detroit. Mrs. Bahr is a graduate of the University of Michigan, and is a member of Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. She spends one day a week teaching arithmetic at the Pontiac State hospital. Mr. Bahr, a graduate of Yale University and University of Michigan law school, is a member of Phi Delta Phi fraternity. Mr. and Mrs. Bahr enjoy a game of bridge and both are golf enthusiasts.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold C. Thomson returned recently to their home at 1031 Norwich after a 17-day sojourn to Pompano Beach, near Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. Accompanying the Thomsons on their vacation was another couple from St. Louis, Mo. While there, the couples visited the Americana hotel in Miami Beach. They also did some deep-sea fishing at Hillsboro, but no one in the party had any large catch to report.

Merry Music Makers To Gather Sunday
