Robert Baums Honor Parents Sewing Group Asks for Remnants

EAST BEVERLY—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baums of Verona Circle are entertaining 35 guests Saturday evening at a supper party, honoring Mrs. Baums' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Hefferman of Berkeley on their 25th wedding anniversary.

The party is to be held in the recreation room and the color scheme will be the traditional silver and white.

The main table will be covered with a white banquet cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, each tier separated with lattice work and silver beads, and "50's" worked into the decoration. Pale pink roses will surround the cake and silver candelabra will be at either end of the table.

Small tables, cafe style, will be placed around the room and each table will be centered with taper candle and painted glasses.

A white orchid will be presented Mrs. Hefferman, and champagne will be served for the toast. Another daughter, Elizabeth, of Berkeley will attend, but a son, Karl, who lives in Nova Scotia will be unable to be here.

Out of town guests will include Mrs. Charles Marchand, mother of Mrs. Hefferman, from Tilbury, Ont.; James Hefferman, Mrs. Leon Casner, Mrs. Harry Laupun, Mrs. Omar Janise and Mrs. Alfred Markey.

Other newcomers on Auburn drive are Walter A. McGuffin who moved from Detroit, Mr. McGuffin is head of the D & M Engineering Co. of Dearborn. They have one daughter, Susan, seven months.

Their hobby is skiing and they have spent several week-ends this winter at the Caberfae Ski Club at Cadillac. They also enjoy sailing in the summer.
