Guests were surprised when they arrived at the home of Mrs. John Donovan of Bradford drive, Westchester, for cocktails and a Chinese dinner Saturday evening. Upon arrival, they were asked to remove their shoes at the door and to don cloth sandals, which Mrs. Donovan had made for them. After cocktails, guests were seated on cushions around a long low table centered with an oriental arrangement of yellow rums Chinese figurines in either side. Completing the theme, Mrs. Donovan had painted Chinese letters on one corner of the napkins.
