SURVEYORS had reported in 1815 that "Taking the country
together, so far as its appearance,
together with information received concerning the balance, it is so bad
there would not be more than one acre out of a hundred, if there would be one out of a thousand,
that would in any case admit of cultivation."

He has four children, one in Birmingham high school, two in Holy Name parochial school, and one kindergarten at Quanton school.
TWO YEARS ago, Sablin, 120 White-st., Birmingham, moved here from Chicago, his hometown. He has two sons, one in University of Detroit, the other in Birmingham high school. He was appointed for one year to the Cook county, Ill. board of education, then was elected to a four-year term.

HE IS CHAIRMAN

of the city plan board, on which he has served since 1954; a past president and present president of the Torry school PTA and a past vice president of the PTA council, and a member of the independent citizens committee on taxation and its subcommittee on finance.
He had a major part in stating this committee's case for the 1956 millage vote which financed the present school construction program. He prepared many of the statistics leading to the school board's urging of construction bond issue approval at the June 20 school election.

BORN IN Highland Park

he came to Birmingham in 1920. He graduated from Baldwin high school in 1935.
His professional affiliations include the Engineering Society of Detroit, American chemical society, industrial mathematics society and national machine accountants association. He is a member of Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.
From 1943 to 1946 he served in the Navy as an aerological officer. He has four children, two of whom attend Torry school and two of whom attend Holy Name school. They live at 1741 Bradford road, Birmingham.
DETERMINATION that the present 8.5-mill levy for school
