'Frontier Frolic Fair' To Draw Area Families

There will be fun and laughter for children and parents alike at the "Frontier Frolic Fair" on Saturday, May 18, at the Eastover school on Westview road, Bloomfield Hills. The gala fair will begin at 10:30 a.m., with a grand opening parade descriptions inviting the public that will include horses, sports. Among them will be shooting galleries and a hay wagon. After the parade, there will be booths of all bake sale, plant sale, white elecfor those interested in cooking, there will be a booth of cook books of favorite recipes that were compiled by mothers in the Eastover area. A parcel post booth will draw much attention with its packages from the four corners of the U. S. A., that can be bought for a small sum. The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies and Cub Scouts will also have booths. There will be races, games, horse and pony rides, hayrides and sports car rides. Then for those that get hungry, they will find menu posters that will include hot dogs, barbecued beef, coffee, pop, ice cream and cotton candy. The fair will last until 4 p.m., so come along Mr. and Mrs. North Adams and bring the youngsters!!!!

The Osage Garden club, branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden Association held its annual meeting and election of officers at the Lenox road home of Mrs. J. Howard Senteney, on the afternoon of May 6. The new officers for the coming year are Mrs. Thomas La Rue, president; Mrs. Charles Baer, vice president; Mrs. Brute Washburn, second vice president; Mrs. Charles Crane, treasurer; Mrs. E. A. Linder, secretary and Mrs. Donald Richardson, corresponding secretary.

Assisting Mrs. Frederick Oliver, hospitality chairman, with the tea, were Mrs. Hugh Carney and Mrs. Warren Wood. The club's annual picnic is slated for the month of June.

Things are slowly getting back to normal at the Eastover road home of the Joseph Schmidts, after their daughter, Helen Marie's marriage to Glenn M. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dick of Walled Lake, on Saturday, May 4, at Kirk-in-the-Hills.

A reception and buffet supper for 200 guests was held at the bride's hill top home on Eastover road, after the wedding, with many friends and relatives coming from Cleveland, Ohio, the Schmidts' home town.

Guests and houseguests for the weekend were Helen's grandmother, Mrs. Helen Schmidt, and grandfather, Lee Stevens, aunts and uncle, the William Numans, the Robert Schmidts and children, the Silas F. Richards, the Fred Perkins and children, Fred and Mary Ann, who were in the bridal party. Friends from Cleveland were the Peter Avers, the Edward Kallensteins, the Vincent Taylors, the John Ritters, the Mammal Quintino and the William Millers.

Other Cleveland friends attending were the Edgar Nygrens, Mrs. Grace Johnson, Evelyn Joyce, Harriet Posgay, also many residents of Eastover subdivision were on hand to congratulate the newlyweds. The couple is spending their honeymoon at Bedford Springs, Pa. and Washington, D. C. Upon their return they will make their home in Pontiac.

During April, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt and Helen Marie motored to Cleveland for showers honoring her.

An aunt, Mrs. William Numan hosted a reception and shower with 100 couples attending on April 26. A Sunday brunch on April 14 was hosted by a good friend, Mrs. Herbert Fitzgerald of Cleveland for friends, former teachers and the school principal. The shower brought back many memories as it was the Fitzgeralds who introduced the Joseph Schmidts to each other.

The Fred Trickeys of Orchard Hill drive have just returned home after a month in Florida. While there they made their headquarters

New Home in Florida

NEW HOME owners in Fort Lauderdale, Fla., where they honeymooned 16 years ago, are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Meloché of West Lincoln drive, Bloomfield township. While vacationing at the Sea Shore hotel, where they were photographed, the couple decided to buy their own home at the resort. With them for the spring holiday was daughter Judy. Back in Birmingham now, they will again trek Southward, when Judy's school closes, to furnish the Fort Lauderdale abode.

at North Reddington beach on the Gulf of Mexico.

It was a relaxing vacation with lots of time to enjoy their three children, Fred, Dick and Dennis. A day was spent in Sarasota and another in Tampa. A deep sea fishing trip was a thrilling experience for the family. Dennis was the fisherman of the group with his catch of one small fish. Catching a swordfish couldn't have delighted him any more!

On their return home they stopped in Jackson, Tenn., to visit Mrs. James Garston, Mrs. Trickey's sister. Pine Hill Association held its annual election of officers at Birmingham Community House, April 30.

New officers for the coming year are president, Thomas Richey; vice president, Charles DePuydt; treasurer, Brady Brenton; co-treasurer, Robert Brandon, and secretary, Willer Cornelius. Coffee and donuts were served to the fifty attending at the close of the meeting.

The First Baptist church of Birmingham, stewardship class, held its monthly meeting at the Bolingbroke home of the Charles Moraes, last Friday evening. Guest speaker was Dr. T. Mansford McGee, ear, nose and throat specialist, on the staff at Henry Ford hospital. Mrs. Irving Warwick, Mrs. James McCreedy and Mrs. Howard Nickols hosted the twenty-eight attending with dessert and coffee.

Newcomers to Lanorgan drive, Leonard Lane, are the Charles Howsons and their three children, Cheryl, Sharon and Chuck. The Howsons are originally from Detroit, but have spent the last two years in Baltimore, Md. Mr. Howson is affiliated with MacManus, John and Adams and is an Alpha Kappa Psi member. Mrs. Howson is active with the Eastern Star. The family's interests include landscaping, gardening and golf.

New residents to Chestnut Hill drive are the Don Burches of Oak Park. Mr. Burch is an engineer with Cadillac Motor. Their two children are Jayne, 5, and Susan, 13 months. The family belong to St. John's Episcopal church in Royal Oak. Until their recent move, Mrs. Burch was active in the drama group of the Oak Park Women's club, and is a Delta Zeta.

Down the road, on Walnut Hill drive, the Thomas Mullany's are getting settled in their new home. Their move was from Meadow Lake Farms, Birmingham. Their daughter, 6, attends Pembroke. Mr. Mullany is a commercial artist with Mienzienger Illustrators, Detroit. The family members are sports enthusiasts, but find gardening will take much of their leisure time this year.

The May meeting of the Detroit North suburban alumnae chapter of Alpha Phi is scheduled for May 21, at 7:45 p.m., at the home of Mrs. Russell Post, 1044 Suffield, Birmingham. Mrs. John T. Emmett, 641 Yarmouth and Mrs. J. S. Abbott, 763 Lakewood will serve as co-hostesses. Accompanying Mrs. Elsie Taber of Devonshire and daughter, Susan Taber will be two exchange student. They are Helene Heldenstein from Luxembourg, who is staying with the Charles Blunt family and Tom deFonSech of Portugal who resides with the Elroy Sanburg family. The students now attending Birmingham high schools will give informal talks on their experience in the United States. Newly elected officers for the coming year are Mrs. Thomas

Wayne D. Gaggie, 610 Chester, Birmingham, was one of the 2,892 students honored recently at Indiana university for high academic records. Stalder, president; Mrs. Russell Post, vice president; Mrs. T. C. Reardon, recording secretary; Mrs. S. B. Hansen, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. J. Rich, treasurer and Mrs. Ewan Allen, quarterly correspondent.
