MRS. WAYNE H. GARRETT, JR.

Saturday Newlyweds Travel to New York

Gowned in white taffeta, Virginia Louise Eastland and Wayne Hull Garrett, Jr., exchanged rings and vows at 3 p.m., Saturday, in the First Presbyterian church of Royal Oak. She was given in marriage by her uncle, Dr. J. Kenneth Eastland, of Northville, with the Rev. R. G. Riemann officiating.

Virginia's ballarina length princess style bridal dress was fashioned with a Belgian lace bodice accented with iridescent beads. Her silk veil fell from a crown of pearls and iridescent beads. She carried white carnations and ivy.

THE BRIDE who resides on Cedar drive, Birmingham, is the daughter of Mrs. John N. Eastland of Farmington and the late Dr. Eastland. Wayne's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Wayne H. Garrett, Sr.

Jane B. Eastland was her sister's maid of honor and Mrs. David T. Sturley was bridesmaid. They wore identical frocks of sea green chiffon over taffeta and carried orchid carnations.

RICHARD A. Garrett, brother of the groom, was best man. Seating the guests were William D. Johnson, Milton Behrens and Robert Richardson.

The bride's mother chose a mauve pink silk sheath and the groom's mother wore blue organdy.

To start her wedding trip to New York City, the new Mrs. Garrett changed to a blue and toast print dress topped with an oatmeal-colored coat. When they return they will make their home in Highland Park.

Alpha Omicron Pi Sets Bridge Party

Among others that are giving parties are Mrs. Theodore Morant, Mrs. Albert Canfield, Mrs. Tom Ward, Mrs. John Maddox, Mrs. Eugene Bychinsky, Mrs. Elizabeth Richardson, Mrs. James Sterling, Mrs. Marvin Faulman, Mrs. B. B. Brier Jr., Mrs. Ralph Houghton, Mrs. T. K. Landis, Mrs. Henry Mothoff, Mrs. Walter Patton and Mrs. Glenn Sawyer.

Dance Students Present Recital

Pupils of Florence Schoesfeld Young will present their annual spring recital and Ball, May 17, in the Crystal ballroom at the Masonic temple.

Three hundred youngsters, from sand-pails to teen-agers, will be participating in the recital. AH ballet and ballroom classes will be included.

Home from World Cruise

While traveling aboard the R. M. S. Caronia on its round-the-world cruise, Mrs. C. E. McLaughlin (above) of Hupp Cross road, met two gentlemen from Birmingham, England—Phillip Wilks (left) and the Right Honorable Lord Iliffe, G. B. E. Owner and publisher of three newspapers in his hometown, Lord Iliffe was extremely interested in scanning the pages of Mrs. McLaughlin's copies of The Birmingham Eccentric. Mrs. McLaughlin embarked at New York in January, and returned to the States last week.
