Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Simpson of Arlington hosted their regular monthly bridge group Friday evening. Members are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Tuttle and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pravel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duvalville of Auburn and their children, Hugh, 9, Dennis, 7, and Cliff, 8 months, recently returned from a two weeks visit with Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Warren of Indian Rock, Fla. While there, they made side trips to Sarasota to the Ringling Bros. Museum and to Silver Springs.

Hugh caught a large star fish, which they very carefully packed to bring home as a souvenir. But when the time came to pack for home, they reluctantly left it behind because it had not been properly treated to take along.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brindle of Arlington and daughter Judy, 12, have returned from Pompano Beach where they spent two weeks. They made several side trips, including Cypress Gardens, and Mr. Brindle enjoyed some fishing. Part of his catch was a 24 lb. kingfish and a 15 lb. red snapper, which they had for dinner. They returned by way of the Cumberland Mountains and Gallinburg and were in time to see the colorful display of wild mountain flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Laffoon of Arlington spent last weekend in Columbus and Chillicothe, Ohio, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Phelps of Arlington spent last weekend in Mt. Clemens visiting the Allen Hurleys, Mrs. Phelps' brother. Saturday they attended the wedding of her nephew at Trinity Lutheran Church, Mt. Clemens.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hurns have returned from a trip to New York, combining business and pleasure. They were fortunate in having tickets to see "My Fair Lady" and feel it was the highlight of the trip.

Mary Louise Smith, daughter of Mr. Lester Smith of Buckingham, was home for the weekend from Michigan State.

Patricia, daughter of the William F. Besses on Beaconfield Dr., a student at Ohio Wesleyan, Delaware, Ohio, and who is a Kappa Kappa Gamma, is a member for "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi." Good luck, Patricia!

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Price of Devonshire recently entertained a group of their neighbors at dinner. Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson, Mr. A. Beukema, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Tull and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brehm.

Cynthia, ten-year-old daughter of the Prices, is making a trip with her grandmother, Mrs. Walter Anderson of Birmingham, to Marblehead, Mass., to visit her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. John Bennett and her cousins, Peter and Debby. The trip is a reward for being an "A" student at Beverly.

The Hahnemann Guild of the Lutheran Church of Ascension held its regular monthly meeting last Thursday. Mrs. Frank Ormand, who with Dr. Ormand has been stationed at medical mission in India for the past three years, entertained the ladies with a talk and colored slides showing the people, customs, dress and buildings in India.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Laffoon of Arlington spent last weekend in Columbus and Chillicothe, Ohio, visiting relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Judson Phelps of Arlington spent last weekend in Mt. Clemens visiting the Allen Hurleys, Mrs. Phelps' brother. Saturday they attended the wedding of her nephew at Trinity Lutheran Church, Mt. Clemens.

Garden Setting For Style Show

VALLEY WOODS—The Community House ballroom was transformed into a garden setting complete with terrace for the Valley Woods W.N.F.G. Fashion Show and Luncheon Tuesday afternoon.

Branches of apple blossoms and pink geraniums were centered on each table with apple blossoms banking the stage. Delightful summer cottages to intrigue the 200 guests and members were shown in sports, afternoon tea and a cocktail hour setting. W.N.F.G. president, Mrs. Wilson McClellan, welcomed the group and thanked all participating members for their effort on behalf of the club.

Mrs. Russell Seeburger was in charge of prizes. Hostesses at the door were Mrs. Roy Goulder, Mrs. Ray Voss, Mrs. Harry Klimushyn and Mrs. Ken Kittle. On the decorating committee were Mrs. Wilson McClellan, Mrs. John Tesmar, Mrs. Fern Kilby, Mrs. Harry Klimushyn, Mrs. Charles Gregory and Mrs. Lewis Dempsey.

FASHION commentator and general chairman was Mrs. Charles Deuel. Mrs. Fred Nicholson of Bellville trail was hostess at the May meeting in her home Monday afternoon. Mrs. Lawrence Beck, Mrs. Lewis Dempsey and Mrs. Ray Voss assisting. Flower arrangements were done by Mrs. McClellan. Mrs. Robert Foley, revision chairman presented the clubs by laws and constitution and adoption followed by general vote.

ON JUNE 6 the group is invited to join the Rochester W.N.F.G. in a tour of the Alfred W. Wood estate. This will be the final public showing before turning over to the Michigan State university. Anyone interested in joining may contact Mrs. McClellan.

To Vote on By-Laws

VALLEY WOODS—The Women's association met at the home of Mrs. John Villa of Plumwood lane Monday evening with Mrs. Fred Nicholson co-hostess. By laws were presented and adopted by the board, to be voted on at all participating meetings. A garden party in June was planned for Mrs. McClellan's home on W. 14 Mile rd.

Berkshires Social Briefs

South Berkshires extend a welcome to two newcomers.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Williams, formerly of Detroit, last week moved into City Fashion Show and Labor road. Mr. Williams owns and operates Artisan Products located near Eleven Mile and Greenfield. He is a dog fancier, a member of the Oakland Kennel club and takes great pride in his two show dogs, Jesse and Buttons, English cocker spaniels.

Also new in the area, are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Fehrer, who recently moved into their new home on Vernon drive from Detroit. The Fehrer's have three children, Donna, 13, Dolores, 10 and Gary, 6. Mr. Fehrer is interested in business for himself in Industrial Floors. For family recreation, the Fehrer's recently joined the Detroit ice skating club.

On Friday evening, the Donald Fraser home on Vernon drive was the scene of a get-together for Wayne State Arab Fraternity members and wives. The 27 couples played bridge and pinocle. Prizes were awarded and refreshments served.

The preceding Friday evening, 22 members of the fraternity bowling league gathered at the Fraser home for their annual banquet—a catered affair.

The Harold Turners are back at their home on Woodhaven lane after an extended vacation in Florida.

Mrs. Turner divided her 2 1/2 month vacation as a guest of Mrs. Harold C. Johns of Detroit in Fort Lauderdale, and in Hollywood, Fla., where Mr. Turner joined her for a month.

For a change of atmosphere, Mrs. Turner flew a centerpiece, accompanied by Mrs. Harold C. Johns and her mother Mrs. Otto Fink of Detroit and Mrs. Ned Johns of Birmingham.

In Port-Au-Prince the group went on a sightseeing trip and attended the outdoor theatre featuring native singing, drumming and dancing of old Haiti.

To celebrate his fourteenth birthday, Ralph Meloche entertained a group of his teen age friends in the downstairs recreation room of his home on Stearns drive. A buffet supper was served to Sharon Poppert, Diane Vowler, Karen Nead, Sue Cline, Bill Pinkerton, Joel Zaitz, Alexander Nead, Jr., and Dennis Long.

Mr. and Mrs. Delwyn Asquith of Coryell drive, with children Cynthia and Gregory, spent the weekend in East Lansing, with Mrs. Asquith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clair D. Jones.

Mrs. Russell McKinney of Stellmar drive returned last week from a two weeks' visit in Cincinnati, Ohio, with relatives and friends.

Indian Theme To Birthday

VALLEY WOODS—All little Indian boys and girls met at Craig Bond's home on Westlady road Saturday for a luncheon party to help Craig celebrate his fifth birthday. Chief Thunderbird atop his home on Stearns drive, with Indian favors for all.

Like most little boys when asked what his favorite cake was, couldn't make up his mind, so Mother had both—angel food and chocolate. Having fun were Ronnie Eklund, Sue Carol Debb, Kenzie Kittle, Debbie and Susie Fisher, Jeffrey Phelps and Tim Stanton.

Indian Guides Council Meeting

VALLEY WOODS—Friday evening Black Hawk and Big Moose (Bob and Billy Wertman) were hosted at a council meeting of the Indian Guides in their home on Westlady. Popcorn was distributed for each little brave to sell on behalf of the Y.M.C.A.

A recent Certified Lighting installation at the John A. Parks Company, 4124 Woodward Avenue, Detroit has created a modern office atmosphere to build prestige, increase customer confidence and improve employ morale. Contractor for the installation was the Woodie H. Thomas Electric Company. Discussing the Certified Lighting Certificate award for conformance to high illumination standards are Charles C. Merriman, Detroit Edison representative; John A. Parks Jr., owner 692 W. Frank Street and Woodie H. Thomas, of Woodie H. Thomas Electric Company.
