Colts Edge Avondale In Baseball
The Colt baseball team collected their second win of the season last Thursday by a score of 1-0 in overtime play against Avondale, on a Troy baseball field made alimony by rain.

The game turned into a hot pitched duel between Avondale's Larry LaForge and Troy's Chester Malachowski, who both had no-hitters going into the sixth inning.

DUE TO FINE fielding on both sides, there were no errors in the game. Lyle Paul, a freshman Troy outfielder playing his first varsity game fielded a hit to left, in the sixth and then threw a strike into third base in time to nab Avondale's Bill Johnson sliding into the bag.

Wayne Peyer performed beautifully at first, and in his relief roll as pitcher in the eighth. He was credited with the victory.

The winning run came in the eighth, when Tom Mitchell singled, stole second, and came in home when Don Harrod smashed a hard hit to right field.
