MRS. EMMETT P. FEELY, JR.

Lt. and Mrs. Feely Reside in Virginia

A breakfast reception at Grosse Pointe Yacht club, for the immediate families, followed the April 13 marriage of Frances Jane Martin to Lt. Emmett Paul Feely, Jr., in Gesa church, Detroit. The Rev. Edward Miller solemnized the nuptial mass.

Parents of the groom are Mr. and Mrs. Emmett Paul Feely of Larchlea drive, Birmingham. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Charles M. A. Martin of Detroit and the late Mr. Martin.

FOR HER wedding day, Frances chose a white bridal gown with lace bodice. It was styled with a square neckline, short sleeves and floor length skirt.

A seed pearl trimmed white satin Juliet cap secured her full veil, and she carried a bouquet of lilies.

Julie Ann Martin was her sister's only attendant. An arrangement of deep purple butterfly orchids complemented her white opandy frock. Designed with boat neckline and short sleeves, the dress featured a powder blue taffeta cummerbund, looped in back, and extending to the hem of the waltz-length skirt.

JAMES NUGENT and Harold Zaiger served as ushers, and Thomas Feely, brother of the groom, was best man.

Mrs. Martin wore a Dior blue dress appliqued with seed pearls and beading. Her orchid corsage picked up the color of the purple flowers trimming her Dior blue hat. The mother of the groom selected a pink flowered hat for her blue silk suit. She pinned a pink orchid to her purse.

For traveling to Williamsburg, Va., where they will make their home, the bride changed to a three-piece ensemble in beige tweed, accented by shoes and bag in a butternut shade. Lt. Feely is stationed with the United States Army at Ft. Eustis, Va.
