Alpha Omicron Pi Hostess at Meeting

Alpha Omicron Pi will be hostess at the May meeting of the Birmingham panhellenic council on May 2 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. T. Hollister Mabley, of Lowell court, Bloomfield Hills. She will be assisted by Mrs. Al Carewell, president, Mrs. Tom Ward, panhellenic delegate, and Mrs. T. Hordman, past panhellenic delegate.

Smorgasbord Scheduled May 9

The Oakland county osteopathic auxiliary will stage the annual smorgasbord, bridge party and fashion show on May 9, at 12:30 p.m., in the Pontiac Federal Savings and Loan Association building in Pontiac.

The smorgasbord table will be laden with favorite recipes prepared by the auxiliary members and Shiller's of Northland will present the fashions.

Co-chairmen of the affair are Mrs. L. Gale Huddle, Jr., and Mrs. Paul Trimmer. Proceeds will go to the student loan and research and the scholarship funds.

A variety show was given last week at the Villa Franciscas for its residents and those residing at St. Elizabeth's Hospital.

Mrs. Frederick W. Lines, chairman of music in hospital and homes for Birmingham Musicians, was in charge of the program.

The show included Mary Gardner Payne, soprano soloist, accompanied by Barbara Wells McIntosh; dancing by Susan Melusky of the Mortenson school; and a boys' trio and the "Jills" (8 girls) from Bloomfield Hills high school, under the directorship of Clarence Luckman.

Class Reunion Program Includes Tenor Soloist

Plans have been completed for the 37th reunion breakfast sponsored by Ruth Shain's class in International Relations, to be at the Community House on May 9 at 9 a.m. Herbert Gardner, vice president of the Detroit Bank and Trust Company, will introduce the Honorable Joseph Dodge, speaker of the morning.

Included in the program will be Wesley Dalton, tenor. He will be accompanied by Kent McDonald, Birmingham pianist. Born in Dearborn, Dalton attended Dearborn Junior college and Wayne University. He has had his vocal training entirely in Detroit under Avery Crew. At sixteen he sang solo parts in several major choral works and was soon sought after as church soloist. He sang for a season with the Detroit Civic Light Opera company and made his debut with the New York City Opera in the autumn of 1951.

Mrs. B. T. Lourin and Mrs. Donald Kohl are in charge of plans to make available to those attending the breakfast, a series of photographs to serve as a permanent souvenir of the reunion.

Those who desire reservations for the breakfast should notify Mrs. George Green, 456 Warren, by May 6. No reservation is necessary to attend the program beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Joel Warren, chairman, stated that anyone in the community, whether a member of the class or not, may attend this annual event.

'A Dip in Time'

had the largest ice cream cones in the world! Each year when Southfield debaters come home from the banquet, they stop at the store near Northville, and enjoy the large triple dip cones.

All-in-all, last Saturday was a lucky day considering the blow-out station wagon developed on the Willow Run expressway, and the talented tire changers who happened to be along. While the girls watched the tire was changed by Daniel Julien, Ted Garrish and Paul Stanley.

Wonder how Mary Lou Lake and Robert Hall, senior sponsors, kept straight faces as they answered questions at a recent Senior Class meeting on the senior trip. They were answered all right, but here are a few of the questions. "What do we expect to see on the deck?" "Can we send letters from the boat?" "Can we telephone?" And most important of all, "Do we have to go to school if we are not going on the trip?"

The seniors will celebrate with a Bon Voyage party the evening before leaving on the trip May 18.

Many students do different things over Easter vacations. But Mel Hering, Ron Irwin and Chuck Staples had quite an experience. They went bird watching. Mary Ann Hayward's father is an enthusiast in the field, and he explained several different kinds of birds to the fella.

Speaking of Ron Irwin, perhaps he has some advice to give those of us who believe the old rumor that it is possible to squeeze an egg with all your might and it won't break. Ron was the victim of such a belief, and it took two eggs to prove to him that eggs break easily. First time he tried the trick, the yolk spilled all over his suit. Then he decided he hadn't performed the trick properly, and proceeded to try again with the same thing happening. Some cleanser will have a lot of fun cleaning two egg yolks from a nice Easter suit.

After the "Quiz 'Em" program, Diane Butler, Paul Stanley, Ted Garrish, Julie Nygler, JoAnne Warren, Margaret Gray and Judy Markan went to the University of Michigan, accompanied by Mr. Daniel Julien of the English Department.

They attended the annual debate banquet given by the Detroit Free Press, and then witnessed the class A debate championship in the Rackham auditorium. Lansing Eastern beat Albion Washington on the controversial farm problem.

On the way home, the students stopped at their favorite spot, Mr. Julien's Uncle's general store, and
