

SITTING BEFORE their make-believe mirrors, these Barnum beauties adjust their Paris hats as they rehearse their roles in "Swim Around the World", Barnum junior high school water ballet slated tonight and tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the school. From top to bottom are Jane McKinley, Diane Downey and Chris Schad. About 35 swimmers are rehearsing daily for the synchronized swimming event at the pool. Mrs. Jane Foster, physical education instructor, is director. (P.S. Girls shed the hats before they start swimming.)

Foremost in several people's minds this week and up until May 10 is the annual spring elections for next year's student council officers in both junior high and upper grades.

Participating in the Detroit Skating club's 1957 ice festival last weekend were sophomore, Phillmore Drummond and underclassman, Bobby Wood. Some members of Delta chapter, which Phillmore is president of, where there watching her skate Friday.

In a recent basketball free throw contest, winner for the high school boys was Tom Risk, and for the varsity regular teams, it was Bud Badger. Junior high champion was Eugene Simmons.

Working on their separate parties until this date are the following nominees: for president, Chuck Mezey; Sue Boyd; Dick Sloan; vice-president, John Welsh; Nancy Smith; Gretchen Rader; secretary, Sue Sundberg; Lucie Barnes; Marilyn Anderson; and treasurer, Bob Barrett, Gay Firth and Andy Galaudet.

The annual mother and daughter sports night was held last Thursday from 7:30 until 9 in the girl's gym. The affair was sponsored by the Girls' Athletic association.

Candidates for president and secretary, only junior high officers to be chosen for this year's seventh grade, are Art Trugena and Martin Sloan for president; Bob Stelzer and Valerie Hart for secretary. The vice-president and treasurer are to be chosen from this year's sixth grades at Vaughan, Wing Lake and Eastover. Nominees for these offices are yet to be announced.
