

In-Coming Officers Elected at Elks

The Oakland association of educational secretaries held their annual "Bosses' banquet recently at the Elks Temple in Pontiac. Approximately 425 persons attended the event.

Walter Horstman, president of Horstman Signs company, Detroit, and treasurer of the Walled Lake board of education, was the master of ceremonies for the evening. He introduced the in-coming officers of the association.

Mrs. Louis Calandri was elected vice-president and the corresponding secretary will be Pat Tennis, both of Southfield public schools.

Joan Marlow, John Foley Set August Wedding Date

The engagement and forthcoming marriage of Joan Kathleen Marlow of Ann Arbor, daughter of Mrs. Clifford William Marlow of Waterloo, Iowa, and the late Mr. Marlow, was announced by her mother at a tea Saturday afternoon.

JOAN K. MARLOW

Joan will become the bride of John Francis Foley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry M. Foley of Buclid street, Birmingham, on August 17 in St. Joseph's Catholic church in Waterloo.

The bride-elect attended Our Lady of Victory Academy, the College of Saint Teresa, Winona, Minn., and graduated from the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Delta Gamma sorority. For the past three years, she has been an instructor in English at Bentley high school in Livonia. She is also doing graduate work in English at U of M.

HER FIANCE is a graduate of Birmingham high school and Georgetown School of Foreign Service, Georgetown University, Washington, D. C. He was a communications officer in the Pacific during the Korean War, and is now studying toward a degree in law from U of M. in August. Delta Theta Phi is his fraternity.

COMMITTEE MEMBERS of the Newcomers annual dinner-dance cast a discerning eye to decide how the life preserver will fit in with their travel theme. They are (from left) Mrs. John V. Hoey, Jr., of Square Lake road, Mrs. Arthur F. Staley of Tullamore drive, Mrs. Albert Holmes of Shallowbrook drive, Bloomfield Hills, and Mrs. Bruce C. Butzier of Glyndebourne.

Newcomers Use Travel Theme For Annual Dinner-Dance

"Round the World in a Night" is the theme of the Newcomer's May 11 dance at Pontiac country club. Decorating the pillars at the entrance will be life preservers bearing the inscription "USS Newcomer".

Rectangular pieces of styrofoam with silhouettes of girls in shocking pink and boys in midnight blue, candles of blue, and flags of foreign countries will accent the dinner tables. Furling the theme will be name tags patterned after the globe with travel posters behind the bandstand.

CO-CHAIRMAN of the dinner dance are Mrs. John V. Hoey, Jr., of Square Lake road, and Mrs. Arthur F. Staley of Tullamore drive.

Others working on committees will be Mrs. Patrick Murphy and Mrs. Laurence Dean, entertainment; Mrs. Marvin E. Olsen and Mrs. Kenneth Brands, publicity; Mrs. Ralph Wagner, decorations chairman assisted by Mrs. Donald L. Davies, Mrs. Harland Oates and Mrs. Charles H. Barker, Jr.

Mrs. Bruce C. Butzier, 6041 Glyndebourne, Birmingham, (phone Fo.) is chairman of the tickets and reservations. She is being assisted by Mrs. Robert Wallace, Mrs. Robert Holt and Mrs. Albert Holmes.

Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
