

Mrs. Pardee To Sing May 7 For Woman's Club

Officers of Birmingham's Woman's club will take office at a luncheon and annual meeting Tuesday noon in Devon Gables. They will be installed by Mrs. Roy B. Fehr, president of the Southeastern district of the Michigan State Federation of Women's clubs.

Featured on the program will be Mrs. Clark E. Pardee, who will render several vocal selections. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music, she has had professional experience in musical comedy. She will be accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Clifton.

The club's American home department, under the chairmanship of Mrs. Irving Brown, is in charge of arrangements, which will include decorations in the club colors, pink and white.

Troyton Manor Extension group met at the home of Mrs. Henry Giuliani and the new officers for the coming year were elected. Chairman, Mrs. Roger Cleary; vice-chairman Mrs. Al Durkee; secretary, Mrs. Charl Green; treasurer, Mrs. Donald Mosley; reporter, Mrs. Bruce Hayward; phone committee, Mrs. Henry Giuliani; safety, Mrs. Allen Diebold; leaders, Mrs. Franklin Benn, Mrs. Anson Hedgecock.

The lesson was presented by Mrs. Anson Hedgecock and Mrs. William Simpson. Time and motion studies were discussed and diagrams supplemented with pamphlets from Michigan State University on ways to conserve energy while ironing, washing, cleaning and cooking. Also mentioned as factors causing fatigue were poor posture and poor nutrition.

Coffee, tea and cake was served by the hostess Mrs. Anson Hedgecock.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Smith of 1823 Pembroke and their two children Cece, 12, and Lynn, 10, returned recently from a trip to New York.

The occasion for the trip was so that Mr. Smith could receive the Top National Design award for his company Smith, Tarapata, MacMahon, Inc., of Birmingham. School Executive Magazine presented the award to Mr. Smith at a luncheon at the Men's Faculty club of Columbia University, for the corporation's Harlan School design.

Before flying home, the Smiths made numerous sightseeing tours with the children to the many notable spots around New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Granville Barker of 1657 Gracefield road entertained the James Adams and son Jimmie of 881 Brooklawn road for Easter dinner. In the early evening, Mrs. Parker's parents Mr. and Mrs. Leland C. Korb of Newark, Ohio, arrived to spend a few days and enjoy their grandson, Robbie.

The day started off with an aquatic show at the pool. The children especially enjoyed watching the Olympic drivers.

During the luncheon, a floor show amused everyone. Highlight of the show was an acrobatic act that many had seen on the Ed

A pre-Easter get-together was held by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Ross of 1554 Witherbee road, Troyton Manor. Those arriving for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Monley and Mr. and Mrs. Myron Fisher.

After the men compared notes on the care of their lawns and the women discussed their Easter attire for the coming day, a game of charades seemed in order.

Mrs. Ross served a light snack and coffee before the evening ended.

Upon their return from Clearwater, Florida, Mr. and Mrs. W. Walton Vocht of Minneapolis, Minn., parents of Mr. and Mrs. William Vocht of 1651 Witherbee road, stopped for a few days to visit and see their grandchildren, Claire Des Lee, 7 years old, Denise, 4, and new grand-daughter Michelle, 7 months.

The Vochts have made this an annual event looked forward to by them all.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mitchell of State College, Pa., with their boys Danny and Stevie, were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Burd of 1216 Wrenwood road.

All the girls received gold disc bracelets with the date and name of the occasion engraved on them.

New residents to the area are Mr. and Mrs. James E. Morrison who moved here recently to their home at 1838 Derby road from Rochester, N. Y. They have four children, Ev, 10, and John, 8, who attend Pembroke school, and preschoolers Molly, 3, and Lindsey, 16 months.

A graduate of Indiana University in Bloomington, Ind., Mr. Morrison is district sales manager for Michigan for Stenoburg-Carlson. He is affiliated with Kappa Sigma fraternity.

A bridal shower was given recently by Doris Lane and Hazel Vanell for Eleanor Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Fisher of 1934 Derby road.

Among the twenty-six friends and relatives attending the shower were Miss Fisher's sisters, Mrs. Peter Betzing and Mrs. William Everingham.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kaufman of 1604 Witherbee road, Troyton Manor, and daughters Patsy, 4 years old, and Anne, 2, spent the Easter weekend in Washington, D. C., as houseguest of Mrs. Kaufman's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard J. Maloy.

Highlight of the trip was when the children attended the Easter Monday egg roll on the White House lawn. It was an event they will long remember with the newscast cameras and the Marine and Air Force bands supplying music.

The regular monthly bridge group on Derby road was entertained April 25 at the home of Mrs. William Simpson. Along with the regular members of the club were two special guests, former resident Mrs. Dave Fulton, who was also the originator of the group, and newcomer Mrs. James Morrison.

Enjoying the delightful spring-time punch that was served were Mrs. James Dodds, Mrs. Claude Phelps, Jr., Mrs. John Fisher, Mrs. Jack Kicena, Mrs. William Talbot, Mrs. Allen Diebold, Mrs. Edward Gabert, Mrs. James Rivard, Mrs. Emma Green, Mrs. Franklin Benn, Mrs. William Robert and Mrs. Frank Seeburger.

Delight and coffee concluded the evening.

The mistake of Mike Regan

Patrolman Michael Regan sees his friend, Harry Sharp, getting into a parked car and taps him on the shoulder.

"What did I do?" asks Harry. "I think maybe you stole this new Ford," Mike grins—"don't you always drive a medium-priced car?" "I bought this Ford Fairlane 500," Harry replies, "and it's the BEST car I ever bought. I got this big, good-looking automobile, plus automatic transmission, radio, heater, whitewalls, two-tone—the works—for lots less than I'd have paid for a stripped-down medium-priced car." "Sure and you're not as dumb as you look—I'll have to let you go," says Mike.

"You'll get a Ford Fairlane 500, too, unless you're as dumb as you look," Harry tells him.

All kidding aside, a Ford with all the Luxury extras is really the steal of the year!
