BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

OFFICIAL DEDICATION of two Birmingham parks is slated for Saturday. Bronze plaques recording the names of the donors are being placed at St. James park on Edgewood near Lincoln, and at Booth park at Harmon and Woodward. City officials and representatives of the donors will be on hand at St. James park at 11 a.m. and at Booth park at 11:30 a.m. Rev. Harold Towne, rector of St. James Episcopal church, and Irving B. Babcock, whose donation to the church of $4,000 earmarked for community youth prompted the church's gift to the city which made St. James park possible, will attend ceremonies at St. James park. Sons of Cranbrook Founder George Booth, Warren and Henry Booth, will attend ceremonies marking their father's gift of Booth park to the city.

THIS WANDERER enjoyed a conversation with a pleasant sounding and thoughtful person who called recently to make a request. "Please ask people to put water out for the dogs," she said. "I'm a shut-in, and out here at Walnut Lake where I live, I watch the dogs from my window. They often have to drink water out of the sewer puddles. I wish people would give them fresh water, because I love these beautiful dogs. And I love the children out here very much, too."

OUR APOLOGIES to Spud Schultz, physical education instructor at Barnum junior high school. A composing room error left him with only a first name in a caption under his photograph on page 8-C of this issue. Spud is the teacher at left in the picture.

TO KEEP THE AMERICAN FLAGS (and themselves) from being soaked, Birmingham Junior Chamber of Commerce members called off their flag sale last Saturday. Instead, they'll be out in next Saturday's sunshine (weatherman, please oblige). At a truck at Pierce and Martin streets, and circulating in tractor-drawn trailers through residential areas, they'll carry on their sale of the $3.50 flags.

HOW ABOUT A LITTLE SUNSHINE?

Unless you're a duck, you've probably had all the dull, dreary, gloomy weather you can stand. But brace up brother. The weatherman says we can look forward to another 30 days of this sort of thing. Of course you could spend those 30 days basking in the warm sun aboard a luxurious Caribbean liner. You could do it on a budget too because summer rates are now in effect for the summer season. Stop in—let us help you out of the doldrums.

Dinner-Dance For 200 Club Is Semi-formal

The final event of the year for the "200 club" will be a semi-formal dinner-dance at Birmingham country club Saturday evening. Dave Farley's orchestra will furnish the music for the evening.

Assisting Nancy and Dick Miner, who have been chairmen of the club this year, will be Marge and Upton Brannack and Harriett and Ralph Fox.

HOSTS for a cocktail party before the dance will be the William Ruellis of Squirrel road. Those invited include the Herb Woolens, the Glen Waggoners, the Jack Wrights, the Homer Finches, the Phil Frenches, the Ralph Foxes, the Burke Bartletts, Bud and Madelyn Wynkoop and Walt and Esther Eis.

Another party preceding the dance will be at the home of Bob and Jan Swason of 1906 Graefield. Guests attending will be the Steven and David Booths, the Ronald Ballantynes, the Gordon Saunders, the Richard and Thomas Miners. Still others are the Herb Lilleyes, the Fred Masons and the Richard Craigs.

Driver, 16, Hits Parked Police Car, Damage Total $750

"No one was hurt—except my pride, I guess, and feelings. I'm sorry," stated Katherine E. Zabriskie, 16, of 1760 Pine, Birmingham, after the car she was driving crashed into the rear of a Birmingham police car, inflicting $450 in damages.

The girl told police she was concentrating on a troublesome windshield wiper as she drove west on Maple near Southfield road in the rain Monday.

One of the girl's two passengers called out when she saw a parked police car ahead, its blinker flashing. Katherine applied the brakes, but the car skidded into the police vehicle.

Patrolman LaMar V. Gilchrist, of 1685 Holland, Birmingham, who was at the wheel writing a traffic violation ticket was treated at Boileau clinic for severe strain of neck and dorsal muscles.

Police estimated about $250 damage to the Zabriskie car and $50 damage to the violator's car rammed by the police vehicle.

To finish off the gala evening, the Steve Booths have invited 11 couples to their home at 1395 Lake place for breakfast.

Kindergarten registration at Hickory Grove school, 2800 Lahser road, Bloomfield Hills, is slated tomorrow from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. Mothers are invited to bring next year's kindergartners to visit and enroll at the school, and should bring birth certificates.

Trust services are for lots of people

... for people like this sophomore, for example. He's going to college on the income from the estate his father left in trust for him at National Bank of Detroit. And he'll get his start in business, too.

A testamentary trust maturing when the boy is 30, was our suggestion to his father. It keeps the bulk of the estate in good hands, growing right along with the young man's ability to eventually take it over. He'll probably continue his trust relationship at that time, but in a different way. For our investment management—the detailed handling of his portfolio—will free his time and energies for the job and family he'll have to think about.

We'll be glad to talk to you about the many advantages of a trust relationship with National Bank of Detroit.
