

Alpha Sigma Alpha "Husbands' Night" Planned Saturday

Saturday evening, the Albert Boenings of North Carolina road will host the annual "Husbands' Night" for alumnae group of Alpha Sigma Alpha.

Cocktail hour has been set for 6:30 p.m., to be followed by the benefit dinner, the proceeds of which are earmarked for the society's several charities, including the Michigan Crippled Children's camp.

Bridge and the showing of slides by various members, from their European and Mid East travel, will feature the evening's entertainment.

Co-hostesses for the event are Mrs. Oris Robinson of Wayne, Mrs. Lloyd Ode of Ypsilanti, Miss Louise McArthur of Detroit and Mrs. Gale Sprague of Birmingham.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news—the society editor about them.

MRS. DANIEL SPRINGER Repeat Wedding Vows In Catholic Ceremony

A silk Juliet cap of peau de soie held in place Lynn Charron's short veil of imported handmade Belgium lace for her marriage to Daniel Ernest Springer. The 11 o'clock rites were read May 18 in St. Francis of Assisi Catholic church by Father Leon O. Kennedy, before 500 guests.

Lynn is the daughter of Henry E. Charron of Ann Arbor and the late Mrs. Charron. Mr. and Mrs. Bradford L. Springer of Vinewood street, Birmingham, are parents of the groom.

The bride chose a gown fashioned of white silk peau de soie over silk taffeta, featuring a scooped neckline appliqued with aluminum lace, and wrist length pointed sleeves. Her skirt was draped over the hipline ending above a cathedral train. A cascade of white garlands and lilies of the valley completed the bridal picture.

PATRICIA CHARRON was her sister's maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Carole Charron, cousin of the bride, Madonna Springer, sister of the groom, Ruth Adams, Janet Hammer and Judith Kabat.

Attendees were gowning alike in blue chiffon featuring lace empire waistlines and full skirts. Their hats were lace with a short circle veil. They carried cascades of pink carnations with lilies of the valley.

Mary Springer, sister of the groom, acted as flower girl. She was dressed in white nylon over blue taffeta with a hoop skirt. Her headband was blue nylon and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink and white carnations. Joseph Springer, brother of the groom, was ring bearer.

THOMAS SPRINGER, brother of the groom, was best man. Ushers were Paul T. Higgins, Victor Shepley, Norman Bowman and Michael and Timothy Springer, brothers of the groom.

Mrs. Springer wore a sheath dress of ice blue organza and lace with blue and white accessories, for the wedding and buffet luncheon at the Ann Arbor town club.

The new Mrs. Springer changed to a cocoa brown linen sheath for her honeymoon to Florida. Her accessories were brown and white.

Betrothal Announced

The engagement of Margaret Ann Perkin and Lt. Wilfred James Mandley, Jr., USN, was recently announced at a cocktail party in San Francisco, Calif.

Margaret is the daughter of Mrs. Norris Perkin of Greenfield road, Birmingham, and Dr. Frank S. Perkin of Grosse Pointe Farms. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred James Mandley of Longview, Washington.

The bride-elect is a graduate of the University of Michigan where she was affiliated with Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. Jim is a graduate of the college of engineering, University of Washington, and is an affiliate of Chi Phi fraternity.

An August wedding is planned.
