

"Farewell Frolic" For Country Day School Students

Billed as the "Farewell Frolic," the record dance tomorrow evening at Detroit Country Day school will be the last social affair presented at the school in its present location in Detroit. Next fall, activities will be moved to the new school being erected at 13 Mile and Lahser roads in Southfield township.

Proceeds from the party will go for equipment for the new school building. Mrs. George Olmstead heads the group of mothers supervising arrangement for the dance.

St. Dunstan's Names Officers, Readies 'Pirate'

Members of the large cast now rehearsing for "The Pirate" join other members of St. Dunstan's guild for the annual meeting in the Pavilion, on Lone Pine road last Thursday evening.

The four members of the board retiring after two years' service, Mrs. Stephen F. Booth, Mrs. Herbert G. Taylor, Fred D. Hendrick, Jr., and Henry M. Jackson, were replaced by Mrs. John H. Warner, Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign, Stephen Manhard and Sidney Oulberg.

Members serving their second year on the board are Mrs. Donald Hutton, Mrs. Robert H. Porter, Robert L. Garrison and J. Thomas Martin.

The new Board elected the following officers for the coming year: president, Mrs. Robert H. Porter; vice president, Robert L. Garrison; recording secretary, Mrs. John H. Warner; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign; treasurer, J. Thomas Martin.

Work is well under way in preparation for St. Dunstan's next offering. With the exception of the Lunt's Broadway hit and MGM's extravaganza, St. Dunstan's will be the first group anywhere to receive permission to produce S. N. Behrman's play "The Pirate." The production will take place June 7, 8, 14 and 15 at 9 p.m. out of doors in the beautiful Greek Theatre.

Mrs. Glen R. Miller is directing the show. Mrs. Rogers I. Marquis is producer, and the leading roles are being played by Mrs. Wendell S. Clough, Frank L. Orin and Jack E. Berno. Others thus far in the cast include Henry S. Booth, Mrs. Jack E. Berno, John W. Sanders, Donald Hutton, Mrs. Stephen Manhard, Mrs. Ray H. Base, Mrs. H. Richard Stedding III, David W. Raymond, Richard O'Reilly, Francis T. M. Loud and Hugh H. Loud.
