

Fete Students At Supper Party

Just for a final "fling" before the close of school, three sixth grade students of Brookside school entertained their classmates at a buffet supper and dancing party.

Susie Bunt, Sandra Young and Ann Casey had guests arrive at the Cranbrook cabin at 4 p.m. to participate in planned games before supper.

As special guests, the youngsters invited their homeroom teacher, Wallace Cripps and his wife.

On hand as chaperones were parents of the youngsters, Mr. and Mrs. William Casey and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Young, both of Lone Pine road, and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bunt of Faculty Row.

Altar Date Announced

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Johnson of L'Anse, Michigan, announce August 16 as the date for the marriage of their daughter, Dorothy Jean Johnson, and Alexander E. Loftquist, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander E. Loftquist, 1919 Lone

Young Dazzler Has Role in Recital

Sherry Strickland, portraying her role as the Spanish torero, was one of the star performers in the annual May Friday night at the Masonic temple. Background spectators for her solo were members of the Vaughan ballroom class.

Presented by Florence Schoolfield Young, theme of this year's recital, traditionally followed by the grand March which inaugurates a formal ball was "Let's Go Travelling." Each dance was representative of countries 'round the world.

Among those from Vaughan were Julie Bennett, Diane Bugas, Thomas Royer, Bob Berry, Jim Brodie, Sheryl Chapman, Jack Ridley, Debbie Scott, John Strickland, Dean Buchanan, Jane Carlson, Chris Debray.
