College Highlights For B'ham Students

Dances, lectures, scholastic awards and many other activities are taking place at colleges throughout the United States, and many Birmingham students are participating in the events.

ALBION COLLEGE—Four residents of the Birmingham area were among the 160 students to receive special scholastic recognition in the Honors Day convocation at the college. They were Sandra Mae, a sophomore at Albion, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James O. Keese; Marlene, a senior, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Latham; James M., a sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton J. Taup; and Robert E., also a sophomore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard B. Terry.

CARLETON COLLEGE—Judith Colwell, freshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Colwell, 92834 Bingham Lane, Birmingham, was a member of the modern dance group in Carleton college's 50th annual May Fete on campus Saturday.

DENISON UNIVERSITY—Jerry Florez, senior, won his third consecutive Ohio conference individual tennis championship in the second flight singles of the tournament last week. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Florez, 1532 Tottenham road, Bloomfield township.

INDIANA UNIVERSITY—Katie Biggs of Stratford, Bloomfield Heights, has been appointed a member of the social committee of the association of women students at the university.

MARYGROVE COLLEGE—All the colors of the spectrum will fill Madame Cadillac hall Friday evening, when the Marygrove college sophomores honor their graduating big-sister class at the traditional Soph-Senior Ball, this year titled "Over the Rainbow". Sheila O'Leary, 16079 Birwood drive, Southfield township, is helping to plan the program for the dance.

MERCY COLLEGE children's theater—Deborah Dobski, a student at St. Hugo of the Hills, and daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Edwin Dobski, 3350 East Pointe Lane, Bloomfield Hills, participated in the production, Spenser of Dreams, as one of the Grecian children, Saturday, at Mercy college's McAuley auditorium.

NEW YORK UNIVERSITY—Carol Nathan, 165 Baldwin avenue, Birmingham, was honored by Pi Lambda Theta, a national professional honor society when she was inducted into its Rho Chapter, the New York university school of education branch.

STETSON UNIVERSITY—Melinda Booth, of Bloomfield Hills, designed a contemporary living room in miniature for the annual student exhibition Tuesday, in the Elizabeth hall art gallery.

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN—Philip E. Allen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Newell Allen, 436 Park Avenue, senior, was recently honored for outstanding scholastic achieve-
