Swing-Out, J-Hop, Senior Outing at BHS

Sailors, ships and sails will be a few attractions of the 1957 J-Hop Saturday at Birmingham high school with the theme Harbor of Dreams, and music by Russ Weaver and his band.

Committees for the dance consist of Don Andrews and John Lynch, general chairmen; Dave Multinier and Connie Gordon, decorations; Judy Austin and Linda Henning, tickets; Sue Schlachter, chaperones.

Others are Barb Cooney and Lynn Sutherland, refreshments; Betty Nichols and Gerry Barinoff, programs; Barb Hohart and Judy Kalmback, publicity; Marcia McFarland and Gail Patrick, cleanup; Jon DeHann and Warren Ricks, band; George Close and Tom Baldwin, lights.

Over 400 seniors will spend

Monday at the high school's traditional senior outing, which will include swimming, games and boating during the all-day affair at Camp Ohbyssa.

Among 25 Pipers distributed Tuesday at Birmingham high school were two sent to next year's foreign exchange students; Elisabeth Burdett, of Belgium, and Yukie Nomura, of Japan.

"When seniors hold their 'Swing-Out' Friday, June 14, they'll take their schoolmates and their friends 'Around the World in 80 Minutes,' their title for seniors' traditional entertainment.

The show leads off from New Year at 8:30 a.m., when a number of musicals will be presented by Principal Ross Wagner during the second half of the program.

Barnum Bylines

BY THE PRESS CLUB

The art club is making baskets and hats out of reed. It is very funny to watch them. The reeds keep falling on the floor and every one gets tangled up in them. They also have made enameled jewelry and drawings.

The homemaking club is also very active. They have made place settings for hospitals; had pie and cake demonstrations; contests, and hayrides. And to end the year, they had a party at Springdale park.

The Barnum music department under the direction of Miss Majel Brettez and Miss Dorothy Joas is at present practicing for the Birmingham music festival June 5 at Birmingham high school.

At the same program various members of the band and orchestra will play.

Miss Brettez will be the huge purple orchid presented to her by the choir. She said, it was the loveliest she'd ever seen. Soon, the ninth grade music classes will have a chance to discover their musical aptitudes by taking a special test.

They'll Head Student Council

Heading up next year's Student Council at Bloomfield Hills junior high school will be (from left) Martin Sloan, president; Barbara Stelzer, secretary; Jeanette Yager, treasurer, and Larry Mularoni, vice president. They were elected-

It seems that several boys who have participated in varsity sports this past year were rather surprised Wednesday evening. Occurred was the annual sports banquet held in the school cafeteria, sponsored by the Bloomfield Hills Lion's club.

President Mr. Bob Stadler, presented a trophy for each different sport to its coach at the school. The coach in turn presented the award to the boy who had been chosen most valuable player in his sport.

Jay Miller was chosen for football and Bob Klinton for basketball. Others were Bud Badger for golf, Al Bowland for track and John Paige for baseball. The highest honor to be given was received by Dave Drury, a senior who was named best all-around athlete of the year.

The completion of the girls' singles elimination tournament of badminton shows senior Judy Moore the winner.

Wednesday the seventh hour was omitted to allow for an assembly

Omega chapter of Phi Sigma Tau gathered at the home of Chris Neumann Saturday for a picnic.

Wednesday evening seemed to be the evening for banquets, for the girls' Athletic association had a dinner, too, at Devon Gables. Included in the entertainment for the mothers and daughters was the Jills of the Hills, singing a song they especially composed for members of GAA.

Another attraction was the announcement of officers for next year. Sophomore Marilyn Anderson was favored for president, and working next under her will be Lucille Barnes. Secretary is Bobbi Irvine and treasurer will be Sue Boyd.

Receiving their intramural pins for four years of active participation in the sports club were Ellen Strong and Nancy Brown, seniors.

Four Selected For Harvard

Among 16 Detroit area secondary school graduates selected for next year's freshman class at Harvard college were three Cranbrook seniors who were awarded scholarships, and Harry A. Louchbin, of Vaughan road, Bloomfield Hills, a stipendiary award to recognize outstanding intellectual promise, and that Akers and Campbell's scholarships provide a portion of their college expenses.
