THE SUIT THAT TAKES CARE OF ITSELF

THE HASPEL Original

(75% Dacron 25% Cotton)
This is the suit that has become a summer classic. Made from a harmonious blend of dacron and cotton, in the classic weave for which Haspel of New Orleans is famous. And whenever it needs refreshing, you can just dip it in the suds... wear it in hours without need of ironing.

MRS. FINN BERGISHAGEN

Married Saturday, Honeymoon in Quebec

Newlyweds, Mr. and Mrs. Finn Bergishagen, are honeymooning in Gaspé Peninsula, Quebec, and will return June 12 to make their home in Graefeld Terraces.

The bride was Mary Louise Keen before rings and vows were exchanged at noon Saturday in the chapel of Our Lady Queen of Hope, Detroit. Msgr. Edward J. Hickey performed the ceremony.

MARY LOUISE is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Keen of Detroit. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Erik Bergishagen of North Adams road and the late Mr. Berg-

Symphony Women Elect Officers

Junior Women's Association for the Detroit Symphony orchestra elected new officers at a closing board meeting and luncheon recently at the D.A.C.

Officers from Birmingham are Mrs. Edmund C. Risdon, president; Mrs. James O. Norville, first vice president; Mrs. T. T. Restrick, third vice president, and Mrs. Keith T. McKenney, membership committee.

Three B'ham Women Elected for Office

Three Birmingham area women were elected officers of the Oakland county chapter of the Valparaiso university guild at their recent meeting.

They are Mrs. Ralph R. Thomson, president; Mrs. Martin Otto, vice-president; and Mrs. Carlton Fix, recording secretary.

Pearls and lace accented the bridal gown of white silk shantung with a chapel train. Her veil of illusion fell from a crown of pearls and lace and she carried a cascade of white roses and lily of the valley.

GRETA Bergishagen, sister of the groom, was maid of honor in a gown of yellow silk chiffon, fashioned along princess lines with an empire bodice. She carried a cascade of pale yellow and white carnations.

Bridesmaids were Marjorie Palmer and Joyce Canning, who wore frocks identical to the honor attendants. They carried pale yellow carnations and ivy.

FLOWER GIRLS, Cecily Spitzer and Colleen Curran, strewed baskets of rose petals as they descended the aisle in pale green taffeta frocks covered with white embroidered nylon organza.

Erik Bergishagen was his brother's best man. Seating the guests were John Lynch, groom's brother-in-law and Duane Morrow.

The bride's mother chose lavender silk organza and the groom's mother wore navy silk. Both mothers had white orchids.
