MRS. PETER SWALLOW

Swallow-Maskell Vows Spoken At St. Bede's

Judith Diane Maskell and Peter Thomas Swallow pledged their nuptial vows Saturday in a 10 o'clock ceremony at St. Bede's church. The Rev. Robert Burroughs solemnized the double-ring rites in the presence of 125 guests.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert William Maskell of Thurber road, Bloomfield township. Her husband is the son of Mrs. L. T. Swallow of Lathrup village, and the late Mr. L. T. Swallow. Judith chose a gown fashioned of white silk peau de soie over silk taffeta with rose pointe chantilly lace trim, featuring a sabbina neckline with an empire bodice, embroidered with pearls. Her face and pearl cap held in place her shoulder length veil. A bouquet of white orchids, lily of the valley and a prayer book completed the bridal picture.

CAROLYN OLDS of Grosse Pointe Farms was the maid of honor and the bridesmaid was Mrs. Leslie Hunter of Royal Oak. Attendants wore shirtwaist frocks of Mouseline de soie in moonstone blue with bouffant skirts. Nose veils fell from matching bands. They carried bouquets of white orchids with ivy trim. Debbie Stewart of Bloomfield Village was the flower girl. She wore a white eyelet dress with a bouffant skirt. She carried a miniature bouquet to match the brides. Ronald Dallery of Lathrup village was best man. Daniel O'Connell and Paul Fitzpatrick, of Detroit were ushers.

MRS. MASSELL wore a dress fashioned of navy Italian silk with a pink rose petal hat and a pink orchid corsage. The groom's mother chose an imported silk faun shade with white orchids.

Following the breakfast and reception at the Detroit Yacht club, the couple left for a honeymoon to Seattle, Wash. For traveling Judith wore a beige sheath silk dress with matching accessories and a white orchid. The couple will make their home in Detroit.
