

MRS. WILLIAM ROY

Couple Honeymooning In Northern Michigan

Barbara Ann Berry became the bride of William Raymond Roy at 9 o'clock, May 25, in Mother of Our Savior Chapel. Nuptial rites were read by Father Richard Bonin before 250 guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Berry of Detroit, are parents of the bride. William is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Roy of Buckingham road, Birmingham.

The bride chose a floor-length gown fashioned of chantilly lace over taffeta, featuring a scalloped neckline and wrist-length pointed sleeves. Her full skirt was accented with pleated net at the hemline. A crown of pearls and sequins held in place her fingertip veil of illusion. Barbara carried a bouquet of white orchids and lily of the valley with tiny satin streamers.

THOMAS ROY of Livonia, was best man. Ushers were Bill Emerson, David Syme and Jerry La-Blank. Mrs. Berry chose a teal chiffon waist-length dress with matching accessories for her daughter's wedding, and reception at the UAW CIO hall. The groom's mother wore a dusty rose waist-length dress of lace with chiffon trim and matching accessories. Both maidens had orchids pinned to their purses.

The new Mrs. Roy changed to a powder blue suit with navy accessories for her honeymoon to Northern Michigan. Patricia Moran, maid of honor, wore a waist-length pink and coral chiffon gown with full skirt, featuring a shirred bodice, train cascading from shoulder to the hemline. She wore a large picture hat of pink chiffon and carried a net fan of rubrum lilies and ivy streamers. Bridesmaids, Barbara Korr, Barbara Warren and Arlene Fowler, wore gowns identical to the maid of honor. Blue carnations adorned their net fans. Donna Mae Berry, sister of the bride, and Jennifer Roy, sister of the groom, were junior brides.
