Rain Fails To Dampen Fun At Wing Lake Fair

WING LAKE—In spite of rain, Wing Lake school held its annual fair Saturday afternoon and evening. With the booths all set up outside and things off to a great start, mother nature apparently sought to throw things into a state of confusion and sent down a teasing down-pour. However, her trick was foiled as the booths still stand quietly, and efficiently moved inside the school and the fair resumed in only a few minutes.

Over-all chairman of the fair was Mrs. Lester Chatfield with Mrs. William Clark assisting her. Those in charge of the evening family dinner were chairman Mrs. Fred Gould and Mrs. Guy Pitts. Arranging for the Wayne university puppeteers for the evening show was Mrs. L. F. Phillips.

Special attractions were the ponies to ride, acquired by Mrs. George Walker Jr. and a merry-go-round.

Besides many games of chance headed by Mrs. Harold DeDrois, there was a gum-drop tree, cotton candy and a wandering balloon man.

Many other booths, including a yummy baked-goods sale center, and a toy white elephant, lined the midway and kept kiddies busy running back to mom or pop for another strip of tickets.

Two Orchard Hills Children Make First Communion

ORCHARD HILLS—Two children of this area made their first communion Sunday, May 19, at Holy Name church.
