Regents-Alumni Scholarship Winners Named

The list of winners of Regents-Alumni scholarships at the University of Michigan includes a number of Birmingham area high school seniors, it was announced this week by Walton B. Egan, dean of men and chairman of the scholarship committee.

The scholarships carry a stipend equivalent to semester fees for the freshman year and are renewable each college year.

Birmingham high school winners are Janice Eskew, Sally Hanson, Roger Hard and Janet Mitchell. From Troy high school are Thomas Preston and Craig Dudley Smith.

Southfield high school's Margaret Gray and Elaine Parker were named, along with Sigmond Snyder, of Cranbrook, and Arthur Flinton, of Bloomfield Hills high school.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF SALE OF GOODS IN STORAGE

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: Notice is hereby given that Potter City, Michigan, the property described below, for unpaid storage and removal charges, and miscellaneous household furniture, including a snowstorm of life savers all around. Lois picked 'em all up, mid-grade of customers and the stern gaze of the manager.

New has passenger—Jerry Curtis. The story behind the story? Well, here it is: Someone looked out of the window at school last Monday and noticed smoke coming from one of the cars in the parking lot—Jerry's car, and now he is faced with a large bill for a new back seat.

Incident at the Varsity club "Crystal ball." Dick Elliott took Pat Breen to the dance, and everything was going fine—the dance was formal and they were dressed to suit the occasion. Then, by chance, Pat happened to meet in the hall, a neighbor, Mr. Gene Perrin, who was attending a square dance in the school cafeteria, Mrs. occasion, in faded blue jeans, cut to bermuda length and one knee sock.

He invited Pat to come square with him. But Pat felt it would be easier for him to come to the Crystal ball, so in they went. Guests at the ball were astonished to see the dancer in a double breasted cocktail jacket and his odd trousers and one knee sock.

Members of Southfield's Voice of Christian Youth attended a Pirate party given by the Detroit VCY at Belle Isle Friday. The entire island was a mass of movement as they went on their treasure hunt.

Southfield will see quite a change next year, with Mr. Robert Hall, assistant principal taking over the job of principal. Maxine Van Ameyde our present principal has resigned from the office to accept the job of assistant to the superintendent of the Farmington school

Monday started the final marking period of the school year. There still remain six weeks of school, with the final seventh week being devoted to final exams. On the final week there will be three half days.

Friday, May 17, marks the day of the Derby spring dance. Tickets went on sale Monday at 75 cents each. Stag tickets will be sold only. The dance will be sponsored by the student council, and all grades are invited.

On the social scene, a surprise party was given Saturday for Janice Harris of the eighth grade.

Southfield High Notes

By MARGARET GRAY

Poor Lois Zumberg had an awful experience last week! Lois helps out in a dime store weekends and after school. Last week she was assigned to store some packages of life savers way, way up on a high shelf.

She got a high stool, and up she climbed. The high stool decided to go one way and Lois the other, with a snowstorm of life savers all around. Lois picked 'em all up, mid-grade of customers and the stern gaze of the manager.

system. We have all admired and enjoyed having Mr. Van Ameyde as our principal for the past six years. We are sure that our loss is Farmington's gain. However, Robert Hall, who is a graduate of Michigan State university and Wayne State is very highly qualified to take over this responsible position, and we wish him lots of luck.

Connie Wardle, a junior, has been chosen to attend Girl's State at the University of Michigan this summer. This conference is for eight days and Connie will have an opportunity to participate in the government activities that are planned.

Others running for offices are Bill Johnson, Dave Harvey, and Sue Farkins, last year's secretary. When a complete list has been compiled, it will be published in this column.

Each candidate must have the endorsement of his math, block, and third teacher of his choice. He must then have a petition of at least 100 signatures from the student body.
